

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

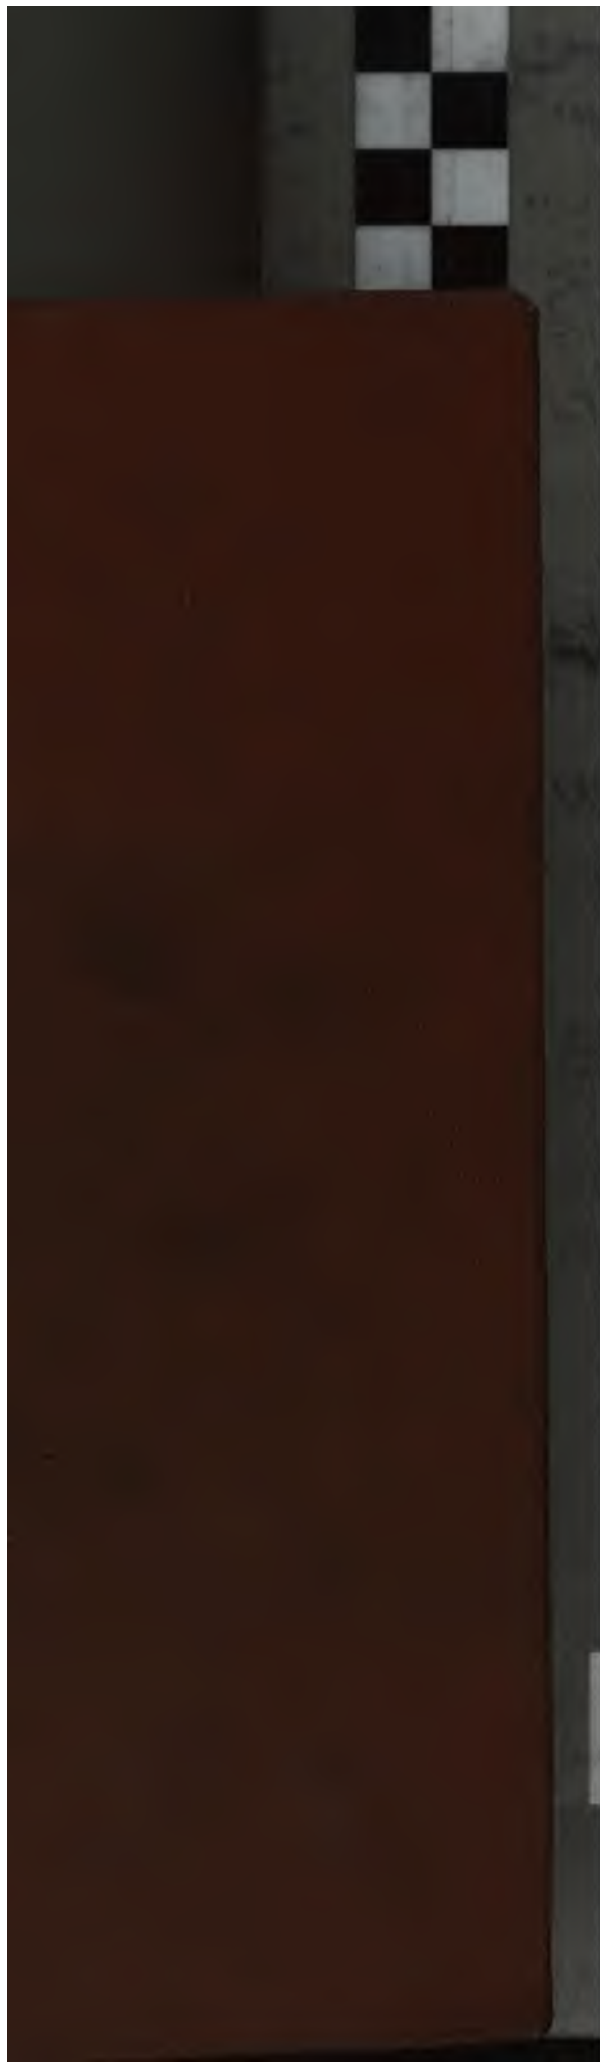

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

TITLE I, CANON I, § II.

OF THE TESTIMONIAL OF LAY DEPUTIES.

Lay Deputies to the Convention shall present Certificates of their election in the following form:

[Name of the Church, the place and date.]

This certifies that at a meeting of the congregation of this Church for the purpose of electing Church Officers and Deputies to the Convention (or for the purpose of electing Deputies to the Convention, if the meeting be for that purpose alone) A. B., C. D. and E. F., being members of the congregation and communicants of the Church, were duly chosen to represent the congregation in that body for the year ensuing. In testimony of which, I have hereunto set my hand (or, if two Wardens subscribe, we have set our hands) the day and year above written.

N. B.—The signature of either the Rector or the Secretary of the Vestry is sufficient; if neither the Rector nor the Secretary signs, then the signatures of both Wardens are necessary. A Clergyman who is simply Minister-in-charge or Missionary cannot sign.

The Lay Representation is limited to three Deputies, whose names in full should be carefully and legibly written.

Three Alternate Deputies must also be elected and certified to in the same manner as the Deputies. (See Title I, Canon 6, § II, [2].)

This Certificate is to "be transmitted to the Secretary of the Convention AT LEAST TEN DAYS BEFORE THE MEETING OF THE ANNUAL CONVENTION." (See Title I, Canon I, § II.)

In order to secure this, the Secretary will forward a blank form to every Parish, and earnestly asks the PROMPT attention of the Clergy.

*.*By the terms of the Constitution and Canons, the Deputies must be members of the congregation and communicants of the Church; also contributors to its support, and worshippers in the Church of the Parish which elects them for six calendar months next before the election, and in Free Churches must have handed in their names as such to the Rector or Minister, in writing, six months before the election. (See Title I, Canon 6, § II, [3] and [4].)

The Trustees have received a certified copy of the last will and testament of Rev. STEPHEN H. BATTIN, late Rector of Christ Church, Jersey City, whereby he devises to the Trustees, in trust for said Parish, the handsome and commodious church which he recently erected, and the lot upon which it stands, being one hundred feet square, on the corner of Claremont and Arlington Avenues, Jersey City. He also devises to the Trustees for the same purpose, but subject to the life estate of his daughter therein, a handsome Rectory and a number of houses and lots in the same vicinity—eight at least in number. The whole property is a very valuable one, and the devise is a noble monument to the Christian philanthropy of a devoted minister of the Church.

All which is respectfully submitted.

The Committee appointed to audit the accounts of the Treasurer of the Aged and Infirm Clergy. Fund report that the capital fund now amounts to $30,189.45, of which $24,625 is secured by bonds and mortgages on real estate in New Jersey, and cash in bank $5,564.45.

WM. WELLES HOLLEY,
ALFRED MILLS,

Auditing Committee.

NEWARK, N. J., May 17, 1893.

The Rev. STEPHEN H. GRANBERRY read the following letter from the Rev. THEODORE I. HOLCOMBE, and moved that its suggestions be referred to the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergy, and it was so referred.

MAY 15, 1893.

My Dear Mr. Granberry:

I think before your new arrangement goes into practice (I mean at the present Convention) there should be added some further conditions of receiving an annuity besides what the Canon already has; something like the following:

Note that the above Canon does not apply.

I. To Rectors continuing to hold Rectorships where the salary exceeds $1,000 per year.

II. To Rectors Emeriti who draw from a Parish $1,000 or more per annum.

III. To Clergymen engaged in secular work or other Church work, who continue to receive for such labor $1,000 per annum. As it now stands anybody can apply and be put on the list of regular annuitants who has fulfilled the conditions of age and time. The Canon was intended to meet the case of men who have served the Church up to sixty-five years of age, and are out of regular work, or who are getting a precarious livelihood, or men who, for reasons known to themselves, desire to resign a Parish. A missionary who continues to work, who has lived on a small salary, of less than $1,000, ought certainly to be eligible. But there must be further safeguards or you will have trouble in the future. But with what I have suggested I think all will work smoothly. Move a committee to report to the present Convention. I thought of these conditions at first. But their importance did not appear so great then as now that I have thought more about it. * * I congratulate the Diocese heartily upon the success of the effort to realize the $30,000, which they are able to report at the present Convention.

Cordially your friend,

THEODORE I. HOLCOMBE.

The Committee on New Parishes reported that no new Parishes had applied to be admitted to union with the Convention.

The report of the Standing Committee was read by its Secretary, the Rev. WILLIAM R. JENVEY.

The Bishop was advised not to consent to the formation of an organized mission in the town of Rutherford. The Bishop was advised to consent to the formation of Grace Mission into a Parish to be known as Grace Church, Town of Union.

Consent was given the Rector, Wardens and Vestrymen of St. Stephen's Church, Millburn, to sell a small portion of their Cemetery, as described in their petition, dated May 16th, 1893. Permission was given the Rector, Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Bloomfield, to sell their property as described in their written petition.

Mr. CORTLANDT PARKER then moved the following resolution :

Resolved, That it is hereby recommended to the Parishes connected with this Convention, to adopt at their next annual election the following manner of voting, viz.:

"The President of the meeting convened for such election shall first call for nominations, and as each thereof shall be made, tellers by him appointed shall write the names of those nominated, one under the other upon a sheet of paper which shall be provided by the Secretary or Clerk and lie on his table ; said names to be written nearest to the lefthand side of said paper, leaving a sufficient margin at the right of the name of each candidate, or below, and between his name and that next in order, for voters to designate their choice as hereinafter directed. After five minutes, nominations shall be closed and so declared by the President, whereupon each voter shall vote by making a cross (x) upon said list opposite each name he may select, till he has voted for as many of such persons nominated as are to be chosen for the offices to be filled. Twenty minutes or more, if the President or meeting shall direct, shall be given wherein to vote. At the expiration of such time the tellers shall proceed to count the crosses made beside each name placed on nomination, and the person or persons having a majority of all such shall be reported by said tellers and declared by said President to be elected."

Which was not adopted.

The Rev. JOHN F. BUTTERWORTH for the Committee on Certificates of Lay Deputies reported as follows:

The Bishop took the chair and called the Convention to order.

The minutes of yesterday's session were read and approved.

The Bishop then read the portion of his address relating to Diocesan Missions.

The Missionary business of the Diocese being the order of the day :

The Rev. WILLIAM R. JENVEY, Archdeacon of Jersey City, read his report to the Bishop, of the Missionary work in his Archdeaconry. (See Appendix to the Episcopal Address).

The Rev. MILLIDGE WALKER, Archdeacon of Newark, read his report to the Bishop of the Missionary work in his Archdeaconry. (See Appendix to the Episcopal Address).

The report of the Board of Missions was then read by its Secretary, the Rev. ALEXANDER MANN.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS.

The Board of Missions of the Diocese appointed by the Convention of last year reports as follows :

Five meetings of the Board have been held during the past Diocesan year.

Eleven Mission stations have been maintained.

Hamburgh and Vernon, in charge of the Rev. JOSEPH H. SMITH.

Belvidere and Knowlton, in charge of the Rev. CHAS. DOUGLAS.

Mendham, in charge of the Rev. LEVI JOHNSTON.

Arlington, in charge of the Rev. JOHN KELLER.

Washington and Oxford, in charge of the Rev. J. A. McCLEARY.

Ascension Parish, Jersey City, in charge of the Rev. JAMES CAMERON.

St. John's, Bayonne, in charge of the Rev. O. VALENTINE.

St. John's, West Hoboken, in charge of the Rev. GEORGE N. MEAD.

St. Luke's, Paterson, in charge of the Rev. THOMAS W. NICKERSON, JR.

St. Luke's, Phillipsburg, in charge of the Rev. CLARENCE H. BEERS.

Stanhope, in charge of the Lay Reader, Mr. C. H. HAYES.

The following is the Treasurer's Report.

The amount which each Parish has contributed may be seen from the printed schedule which is in the hands of the Convention.

In accordance with the provisions of the Canon, the Board reports that the following Parishes and Missions have failed to contribute anything to the Missionary work of the Diocese during the past year.

Trinity Church	Hoboken
Christ Church	East Orange
Ascension Church	Jersey City
St. Matthew's Church	Jersey City
St. Stephen's Church	Millburn
St. Philip's Church	Newark
Church of the Holy Communion	Norwood
St. Luke's Mission	Paterson
St. Peter's Mission	Washington
Grace Church	Rutherford
St. James' Church	Ridgefield

The Treasurer has also informed the Board that, in order to pay the quarterly stipends, which are now due the missionaries, he needs $450, and the Board recommends that this amount be raised now by personal pledges from the members of this Convention, so that we may begin the new Diocesan year free from debt.

And the Board would further recommend that the Convention should mark its sense of the importance of the Missionary work of the Diocese by devoting hereafter the whole of the second morning of the Convention to a consideration of that work as it may be set forth in the reports of the Bishop, the Archdeacons, the Treasurer, and the Missionaries themselves, who would thus have an opportunity of presenting their work and its needs to their brethren of the Clergy and Laity. Theoretically, we will all agree that the most important subject that comes before this Diocesan Convention is its missionary work. Let us, then, give some practical expression and form to that belief.

It is estimated that to carry on the missionary work of the Diocese even on its present limited lines, for the coming year, requires an appropriation of $3,500. It is a mere pittance for this wealthy Diocese to raise. But the mortifying experience of the past warns us that to secure even this pittance will demand a more vigorous effort on the part of Clergy and Laity. A comparison of the amount raised during the past year for Diocesan Missions with that of the year previous, shows a falling off of about $450. That fact is its own best comment. It is plain that our people need to be roused to a livelier interest in Diocesan Missions, and to a deeper sense of their obligations to that work. And as one means towards securing that result, the Board would suggest to the Convention that the incoming Board of Missions be requested to print and issue to all the Parishes one or two weeks before the Sundays appointed for the Canonical Offerings for Missions, a Missionary leaflet, stating the amount of money necessary to be raised, the names of the Mission stations, and such other information regarding the Missionary work of the Diocese, as shall tend to promote among our people an intelligent interest in this most important work.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

The Hon. BRADFORD L. PRINCE, Governor of New Mexico, the Secretary of the American Church Building Fund Commission, was introduced to the Convention by the Bishop, and addressed it on the subject of the Commission's work.

On motion of the Rev. MILLIDGE WALKER, it was :

Resolved : That it is the sense of this Missionary Council that at least four thousand dollars ($4,000) are needed for the sustentation of our Diocesan Missions for the current year, and that the Board of Missions is hereby authorized to base its appropriations on the expectation of receiving that sum ; and furthermore, that the members of this Council pledge themselves to assist heartily in accomplishing this object.

The Rev. T. W. NICKERSON, Jr., moved the following resolution :

Resolved, That the Rules of Order be so amended that the whole of the morning of the second day of the session of the Convention be devoted to the consideration of Diocesan Missionary business.

The Rev. BENJAMIN BREWSTER offered the following amendment which was accepted by the mover of the resolution as a substitute:

Resolved, That Section III, of the fourth Rule of Order be amended so as to read : "Missionary Business and Addresses as arranged by the Board of Missions, to occupy the remainder of the morning session."

Which was not adopted.

The Rev. REEVE HOBBIE, by permission, addressed the Convention on the subject of his work among the colored people of Newark.

The election of a Board of Missions being in order, the Rev. Dr. BISHOP moved that the old Board be re-elected viva voce, which was unanimously carried.

So the following constitute the Board of Missions for the ensuing year :

THE BOARD OF MISSIONS.

The Rev. GEORGE S. BENNITT,	Mr. DE LANCY CLEVELAND,
" ALEXANDER MANN,	" GEORGE S. WYLIE,
" MILLIDGE WALKER,	" G. G. FRELINGHUYSEN,
" LOUIS S. OSBORNE,	" J. M. ERSKINE,
" T. J. NICKERSON, JR.,	" C. K. HITCHCOCK,
" FRED'K. B. CARTER,	" ROBERT A. HEWITT.

The election of the Standing Committee being in order, the Chair appointed as tellers for the Clerical vote the Rev. F. E. MORTIMER and Mr. WILLIAM M. FRANKLIN, and as tellers for the Lay vote the Rev. EDWIN E. BUTLER and Mr. A. A. VAN HOVENBERG.

While the tellers were counting the vote, Mr. ALFRED MILLS made a report of the Trustees of the Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund on the letter of the Rev. T. I. HOLCOMBE, which was referred to them, as follows :

The Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen, to whom was referred the communication addressed by the Rev. THEODORE I. HOLCOMBE to the Rev. Mr. GRANBERRY, report that, in their opinion, it would be inexpedient to make any change in Title III, Canon 1.

This Canon deals with two separate funds.

First. Collections and donations not limited by the donor, received during the Conventional year—these are disposed of according to the directions of Section 3, as amended. The beneficiaries of this fund are called “special annuitants.”

Second. The $30,000 fund mentioned in Section 6, the interest of which is divided among a class of Clergymen known as “regular annuitants.”

The Trustees are at liberty to appropriate the first of these funds to the relief of such clergymen disabled by age, accident or disease, as they may think proper, provided those clergymen are canonically connected with the Diocese and are otherwise qualified ; the maximum sum which it may be lawful to pay them being determined by reference to their term of service. Whether any, and if any, what sum shall be so paid to any particular clergyman, rests in the discretion of the Trustees.

The $30,000 fund stands on a different basis. The annuities payable out of this fund do not, in any degree, depend upon the discretion of the Trustees. Every Clergyman possessing the canonical qualifications, is entitled to share equally in the interest accruing therefrom. These qualifications are, in the words of the Canon, the following :

First. The clergyman must have reached the age of sixty-five years.

Second. He must have been canonically connected with the Diocese for the five years immediately preceding his application for an annuity.

Third. He must have been, for at least five years of his last term of canonical residence, a settled minister of the Diocese, or a missionary duly appointed by the ecclesiastical authority.

This $30,000 fund is held by the Trustees as a trust, and that trust is declared by the Canon. Contributions to this fund have been made, on the assumption that it would be devoted to the object specified, and there has been no reservation of a right to devote it to other objects. The right of the Convention to divert the income to a use differing from that to which it has already been devoted, is open to very serious legal difficulties. If the use may be changed at all, it may be changed to any extent, and a fund contributed for one object may be devoted to an entirely different one. This is unjust to the contributors and impolitic. If it be within the power of the Convention to say that a clergyman with a salary of $1,000 shall not share in the fund, it is equally within its power to say that a clergyman with a salary of $500. shall not share in it. The age at which it shall be received may be changed indefinitely, and so one class of beneficiaries may participate in its benefits at one time, and another at another time. All certainty as to its destination is thus at an end.

It seems to the Trustees that every clergyman should be able to look forward with absolute confidence to a participation in the fund when he shall have brought himself within the terms of the trust. He will then look upon a participation in it as a matter of right ; as a reward of faithful service, and not as a matter of charity. Legal complications will be avoided, and contributors to the increase of the fund will feel that their bounty will go in the channel marked out for it.

The Convention has unlimited control over the other fund, made up of collections and donations, and the disposition of that fund can be changed with the changing circumstances. This will give sufficient elasticity to the general scheme.

On motion it was

Resolved, That the Trustees of the Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund be discharged from the further consideration of the subject.

The tellers for the Clerical vote for the Standing Committee reported that the following were elected, viz.: The Rev. R. N. MERRITT, D.D., the Rev. WILLIAM WELLES HOLLEY, D.D., the Rev. WILLIAM R. JENVEY, the Rev. N. BARROWS.

The tellers for the Lay vote for the Standing Committee reported that the following were elected: Mr. ALFRED MILLS, Mr. HENRY HAYES, Mr. FREDERICK W. STEVENS, Mr. EDWIN A. STEVENS.

On motion, the election by the order of the Clergy was confirmed by the Laity.

On motion, the election by the order of the Laity was confirmed by the Clergy.

So the following constitute the Standing Committee of the Diocese :

THE STANDING COMMITTEE.

The Rev. R. N. MERRITT, D.D.,	Mr. HENRY HAYES,
" W. W. HOLLEY, D.D.,	" FREDERICK W. STEVENS,
" WILLIAM R. JENVEY,	" EDWIN A. STEVENS,
" N. BARROWS,	" ALFRED MILLS.

The hour of 1 P. M. having arrived, the Convention took a recess of one hour.

TRINITY CHURCH, Newark, 2 P. M.

The Bishop called the Convention to order.

The Rev. JAMES CAMERON moved the following:

Resolved, That the present Board of Missions of this Convention is not responsible for the arrearages of salaries owing to the Missionaries by the convocations as organized under the former Canons of this Convention.

Mr. LIGHTHIPE moved as an amendment that the word "not" be stricken out.

The Rev. F. B. CARTER offered the following substitute :

Resolved, That the Treasurer of the Board of Missions ascertain the amounts, if any, due the Missionaries of this Diocese prior to the enactment of the present Missionary Canon, and that the amount subscribed this morning in excess of the deficiency of the Board be applied to the payment of such indebtedness.

Which was adopted.

The election of a Treasurer of the Diocese being in order, on motion, the ballot was dispensed with and Mr. HENRY HAYES was elected by acclamation.

The Chair appointed as Auditing Committee, Mr. JOHN I. YOUNG and Mr. D. C. WIGHTMAN.

The election of a Registrar being in order, the ballot was dispensed with, and Mr. D. SMITH WOOD was elected Registrar.

The Rev. WILLIAM RICHMOND, of the Committee on Constitution and Canons, made the following report:

REPORT NO. 1.

COMMITTEE ON CONSTITUTION AND CANONS.

The Committee on Constitution and Canons respectfully report that they have had under consideration the amendment to sub-section [2] of § II of Canon 6, of Title I (printed slip belonging to page 21 of the Code) proposed and referred to them on the 16th inst.

The proposition is to amend by striking out the words "who shall be Communicants not under suspension" after the words "Two Wardens" (line 8 of [2]) and by inserting after the words "Entitled to elect" (line 11) the words "All of whom shall be male communicants of the Parish not under suspension," making the whole sentence read, "At such meeting the qualified voters of the Parish shall elect by a majority of votes cast, three Deputies and three Alternate Deputies to the Diocesan Convention, two Wardens, one of whom shall be called the Senior Warden and the other the Junior Warden, and such number of Vestrymen as the Parish may be legally entitled to elect, all of whom shall be male communicants of the Parish not under suspension."

The Canon, as at present in force, requires that the three Deputies and the three Alternate Deputies (Constitution, Art. 4, Sec. 4) and the Wardens shall be communicants. The amendment proposed requires that the Vestrymen also shall be communicants.

While the Committee recognize the principle expressed in the proposed amendment as right in itself and a principle that it is desirable to follow when practicable, it is not thought that it is a moral principle in such sense that its infringement is morally wrong. In many cases, in weak rural Parishes, the number of communicants otherwise competent may be too small to allow the restriction proposed; and such Parishes, should the amendment be adopted, would be forced to relinquish their parochial organization and become missions—a result likely to be attended with disaster. This, among other considerations, is sufficient, in the opinion of the Committee, to make the proposed amendment, at the present time, inexpedient. Accordingly they recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the adoption of the proposed amendment to sub-section [2] of § II, of Canon 6, Title I, is undesirable, and that the Committee be discharged from further consideration of the subject.

By order of the Committee,

WILLIAM RICHMOND,
Chairman.

A vote being taken on the resolution contained in this report, it was adopted.

The Rev. Mr. RICHMOND then presented the following:

REPORT No. 2.

COMMITTEE ON CONSTITUTION AND CANONS.

The Committee on Constitution and Canons respectfully report that they have had under consideration the amendment to Canon 6 of Title I (printed slip belonging to page 21 of the Code) referred to them on the 16th inst.

as proposed by the Reverend, the Rector of Grace Church, Jersey City:

Resolved, That sub-section [5] of § II, of Canon 6, of Title I, be amended so as to read: "It shall be the duty of the Rector, Wardens and Vestrymen of each Parish to prescribe a mode in which regular contributions may be made."

It is understood that this amendment, striking out all but the last sentence of the sub-section, was proposed on the ground that the sub-section as it stands is nugatory, not giving to communicants any privilege that they do not already possess as baptized persons under the two preceding sub-sections.

A careful examination of the Canon as now in force shows that by sub-section [3] in Parishes in the Church of which pews are rented, any baptized male with certain specified qualifications shall be eligible to office or entitled to vote who is the holder of a sitting and has paid the rent thereon. Under this sub-section no one but a pew-holder can vote or hold office.

By sub-section [4], in Free Churches, any baptized male with certain specified qualifications, who is a regular contributor to the current expenses of the Parish and has registered at least six months before the election, may vote and hold office.

Should the proposed amendment be adopted, striking out all but the last sentence of sub-section [5] eligibility to office and the privilege of voting will be restricted to baptized persons (including, of course, communicants), fulfilling the requirements of sub-sections [3] and [4].

Sub-section [5], as at present in force, however, extends the franchise and eligibility to office, under certain specified conditions, to a certain class of communicants who would not have such rights under sub-sections [3] and [4]. It affects communicants who are not pew-holders in Churches in which all or some of the pews are rented.

While it provides against the importation of voters who are not bona fide communicants of the Parish, it likewise provides that bona fide communicants of the Parish having certain other specified qualifications shall be eligible to office and entitled to vote if they be regular contributors to the current expenses of the Parish, according to a mode adopted therein, and makes it the duty of the Rector, Wardens and Vestrymen of each Parish to prescribe such mode.

It will be seen that under this sub-section the corporation of a Parish in which some or all of the pews are rented may prescribe a mode of regular contributions, by which certain communicants shall be eligible to office and entitled to vote who could not have such privileges under sub-sections [3] and [4]. They may, e. g., prescribe as such mode, (a) the payments of pew rents, or (b) what is known as the envelope system, at the option of Parishioners.

The sub-section, therefore, provides, at the discretion of the Rector, Wardens and Vestrymen, an undoubted extension of privilege to certain communicants in Parishes in which the pews are rented and in Parishes in which a combination of the pew-rent system and the free-church system prevails.

Other objections may, perhaps, be found to the sub-section now under consideration; but so far as concerns the objection that it is nugatory, it is thought that such objection has been met, and that it is undesirable to disfranchise those communicants to whom the franchise has been extended by striking out the words by which it is extended.

The Committee recommend the adoption of the following resolution :

Resolved, That the amendment to sub-section [5] of § II, of Canon 6, of Title I, referred on the 16th inst. to the Committee on Constitution and Canons is undesirable, and that the committee be discharged from further consideration of the subject.

By order of the Committee,

WILLIAM RICHMOND,

Chairman.

The Rev. EDWIN A. WHITE presented a Minority Report, as follows:

The undersigned, member of the Committee on Constitution and Canons, is unable to unite in the Report of the majority of the Committee on the Resolution referred to them amending sub-section [5] of § II of Canon 6, of Title I, Of the Parish.

While concurring in the opinion of the majority that certain communicants, not pewholders, should be eligible to vote at Parish elections, I do not concur with them in believing that said sub-section is best adapted to accomplish such purpose. On the contrary, I believe that this sub-section is impracticable and calculated to defeat the very purpose it seems to desire by means of its varied and numerous restrictive clauses, which are confusing and unintelligible to the average mind and incapable of exact and certain interpretation. For these reasons and because I am convinced that Parish elections held under this Canon as it now stands may, many of them, be declared illegal, therefore, I recommend the adoption of the following resolution introduced by the Rev. Mr. BENNITT and referred to this Committee:

Resolved, That sub-section [5] § II of Canon 6, of Title I, Of the Parish be amended so as to read, "It shall be the duty of the Rector, Wardens and Vestrymen of each Parish to prescribe a mode in which regular contributions may be made."

EDWIN A. WHITE.

The Rev. GEORGE S. BENNITT moved that the Minority Report be substituted for the Majority Report.

Which was carried.

The vote was then taken on the resolution of the Minority Report, and it was adopted.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. SCHUYLER, it was Resolved, That the Treasurer be authorized and directed to pay to the Secretary of the Convention the sum of three hundred dollars ($300) annually for his services.

The Rev. E. A. WHITE offered the following as an amendment to § II, Canon 6, Title I.

In all churches male communicants, of full age, not under suspension, shall be eligible to office and entitled to vote at any election, provided they (1) have been for at least six calendar months next before said election regular contributors to the current expenses of the Parish holding the election, and (2) have been worshippers therein for at least the same period.

Which, on motion, was referred to the Committee on Constitution and Canons.

The Rev. JOHN S. MILLER moved the following :

Resolved, That the Committee on Rules of Order be instructed to report to the next Convention such changes in the Rules of Order as may be necessary to provide : (1) That nominations of Standing Committee, of Deputies to the General Convention and of such officers of the Convention as are to be elected on the second day of the session of the Convention, be made on the first day. (2) That the election of the same be held simultaneously on the second day immediately after the transaction of the Missionary business of the Convention. And (3) That the voting shall be by the use of one ballot printed by authority of the Convention, containing the names of all persons nominated, with the office for which they may be nominated clearly indicated ; each voter to indicate his choice by a mark placed over against the names of those persons for whom he wishes to vote (or by erasing the names of those for whom he does not vote), or by writing the names of any persons not thus nominated under such head as he desires.

Which was adopted.

On motion of the Rev. W. R. JENVEY, it was Resolved, That the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund be instructed to remit the interest on the Bond of St. John's Church, Bayonne, up to April 1, 1893.

The Secretary read the report of the Committee on Finance.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FINANCE.

They recommend that an assessment be made for the current year of seven (7) per cent. on the present salaries of the Clergy for paying the Bishop's salary, upon all Parishes which have not given bonds to the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund ; and of two and one half ($2\frac{1}{2}$) per cent. on the salaries for Convention expenses and other liabilities.

P. EDWARDS JOHNSON,
GEORGE S. WYLIE,
HENRY HAYES.

Which was adopted.

On motion of Mr. HENRY HAYES the amount due the Episcopal Fund from the Parish of the Holy Communion, Paterson, to April 1, 1893, was remitted.

The Rev. F. B. REAZOR presented the report of the Committee appointed at the last Convention to consider that part of the Bishop's address which related to the Hospital of St. Barnabas. (See Appendix.)

On motion of the Rev. F. J. CLAYTON, it was

Resolved, That the Treasurer of the Diocese be authorized and directed to pay to the Bishop's Secretary and Chaplain the sum of five hundred dollars ($500) for the Convention year 1893-4.

The Rev. WILLIAM RICHMOND offered the following and moved that it be referred to the Committee on Constitution and Canons :

Proposed amendment of Canon 3, of Title III, (Code, p. 36).

Resolved, That Canon 3, of Title III, be amended by adding :

§ III. All new Canons and amendments to Canons shall take effect on the first day of September following the adoption thereof, unless it be otherwise ordered by the Convention.

If the above be accepted by the Committee its favorable report should be accompanied by the following resolution :

Resolved, That § III, of Canon 3, of Title III, take effect immediately.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. WEBBE, it was Resolved, That the Secretary have printed 700 copies of the JOURNAL of Convention.

On motion of the Rev. GEORGE M. CHRISTIAN, it was Resolved, That this Convention elect two members, a Clergyman and a Layman, of the Missionary Council, to be held in San Francisco.

The Chair appointed as tellers for the Clerical vote the Rev. EDWIN E. BUTLER and Mr. P. E. JOHNSON, and as tellers for the Lay vote the Rev. T. W. NICKERSON, JR., and Mr. WILLIAM M. FRANKLIN.

Nominations were made as follows :

The Rev. L. S. OSBORNE and the Rev. F. B. REAZOR, Mr. HENRY HAYES and Mr. ALFRED A. VAN HOVENBERG.

The ballots were cast and the tellers retired to count the votes.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. HUGHES, it was

Resolved, That the Secretary be authorized to have printed a new edition of the Constitution and Code of Canons of the Diocese, and to draw on the Treasurer for the same.

On motion of Mr. ALFRED MILLS, it was

Resolved, That the same, if published, be interleaved with blank pages.

On motion of Mr. A. A. VAN HOVENBERG, it was

Resolved, That the thanks of the Convention are hereby tendered to the Rector, Wardens and Vestrymen of Trinity Church, Newark, for the use of the Church and for conveniences afforded for the transaction of business; and also to the Woman's Auxiliary Society of Trinity Parish and to the Daughters of the Church.

On motion, it was

Resolved, That the Treasurer of the Convention be ordered to pay the Sexton of this Church the usual sum for his services.

On motion of the Rev. MILLIDGE WALKER, it was Resolved, That the Secretary be instructed to print sufficient copies of the report of the Committee on the Hospital of St. Barnabas, and that it be distributed to the Rectors of Parishes in the Archdeaconry of Newark.

The Rev. JOHN KELLER made the following report:

The Committee on Unfinished Business report that upon a review of the JOURNALS of 1892 and of this Convention, they find that reports may be expected from Committees appointed or continued by the last Convention, upon the following subjects: "Episcopal Residence," and "State Legislation."

The tellers on the vote for Members of the Missionary Council reported that the Rev. L. S. OSBORNE and Mr. HENRY HAYES had each received a majority of the votes cast and were elected.

The Rev. GEORGE S. BENNITT moved the following resolution :

Resolved, That the Rev. SPENCER M. RICE, D.D., is entitled, according to the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese, to a seat and vote in this Convention.

The Rev. Mr. RICHMOND proposed as an amendment, which was accepted by Mr. BENNITT :

That the right of the Rev. Dr. RICE to a seat and vote in this Convention be referred to the Committee on the Rights of Clerical Members with instructions to report immediately.

Which was adopted.

The Committee on the Rights of Clerical Members reported through the Rev. Mr. JENVEY the following resolution :

Resolved, That the Rev. SPENCER M. RICE, D. D., is entitled to a seat and vote in this Convention.

Which report was adopted.

On motion of the Rev. Mr. JENVEY, it was

The minutes of this day's session were read and approved.

After the singing of a hymn and prayer, and the benediction by the Bishop, the Convention adjourned. sine die.

FOURTEENTH ANNUAL ADDRESS

OF THE

Rt. Rev. Thomas A. Starkey, D.D.

BISHOP OF THE DIOCESE.

BRETHREN OF THE CLERGY AND LAITY :

I greet you once more at the annual meeting of our Diocesan Council with my best wishes for your individual prosperity and happiness, and invoke in your behalf the grace and benediction of our LORD JESUS CHRIST.

The past year has been, so far as our Diocesan affairs are concerned, a quiet but progressive one, with satisfactory indications in most of the Parishes and Missions of external, and, let us hope, spiritual prosperity.

With all the growth in wealth, industry and population, that characterizes this Northern portion of our State, it is not without significance that our communicants increase in a ratio much larger than that of the general population. It is, of course, to be expected that as the intelligence which is born of settled and conservative habits and general culture increases, the subjects of it will be more or less attracted to the Church. To a certain extent, this moulding and recasting of ideas is going on everywhere in the country, but the process is inevitably a slow one. It is well, perhaps, for us all to remember that the battle for Divinely revealed truth is being always fought on a field where generalship counts for more than numbers, and where the contestants are not personal enemies, but are often very warm and attached friends.

Three of our Bishops have passed away from us quite recently. The Right Reverend Dr. KIP, for so many years the Bishop of California, a man of high culture and of dignified and courtly bearing, was a valued friend of mine in days long gone by. He was better fitted by nature and training for the life of an old than for the crude and changing ways of a new community. Those who knew him well always recognized the high and conscientious sense of duty and the warm and even tender sympathy for all who needed it, which were far more a part of himself than the conventionalism of manner which was more apparent to people generally. Some of Bishop KIP's works, notably his "Double Witness of the Church," have been and are still of great value to those whose duty or taste inclines them to a study of the Church and her doctrines.

On the 23d of January, 1893, the Right Reverend Dr. BROOKS, Bishop of Massachusetts, died suddenly and unexpectedly after a brief Episcopate of less than sixteen months. The history of these months and of the few immediately preceding them give a pathetic interest to this sudden ending of a life both strong and tender, which had attracted irresistibly the public attention and regard; a feeling and interest which I am sure are shared by every manly and generous heart and which are by no means confined to those who yielded more than others did to the indefinable charm of a personality, which not only vitalized every thing he said or did, but imparted its peculiar grace and power especially to his rare gift of eloquence.

The Right Reverend Dr. BISSELL, Bishop of Vermont, passed away on the 14th of May, 1893, at the advanced age of seventy-nine years. He was a man of singularly quiet and unobtrusive manners, and was honored and respected by all who knew him. Those Northern Dioceses present a hard field for the Church to sow her seed in. Dr. BISSELL's life there illustrated, perhaps better than that of most men, the strength that may often be found in quietness.

No less than four of our Diocesan Clergy have died since our last meeting. On the 28th of May, 1892, the Reverend J. N. STANSBURY, B.D., for so many years Rector of Christ Church in Newark, and Dean of the Convocation, died after a lingering illness borne with the singular and trustful patience which was a part of himself. No other Clergyman in the Diocese besides myself knew its affairs so intimately as Dean STANSBURY; no other shared my work, its hopes and anxieties, with so unselfish a devotion as he. The Church of Christ, for which alone he seemed at times to think and work and live, had little to give him in the way of temporal rewards, unless indeed it were the high esteem and honor in which men universally held him. But for much beyond this our friend cared little in his unselfish faith.

On January 23d of this present year the Reverend WILLIAM HALL, a young Priest of the Diocese, who had for a year or more been engaged in work at St. Augustine's Chapel in New York, passed away after a short illness. He was a true and faithful Clergyman.

On the 22d of the following month, viz.: February, the Reverend STEPHEN H. BATTIN, who was, I believe, at three several times Rector of Christ Church, in Jersey City, died at the age of seventy-eight or seventy-nine years. He had resigned the Parish a year or two before and at the time of his death had still a quasi connection with it. Mr. Battin had purchased a lot in the near neighborhood of the Church a year before and erected on it a brick building of considerable size and some architectural merit, which he presented to the Parish. It is understood that his will provided for the ultimate liquidation of all unsettled claims against the building, and also for some partial endowment. It was a well considered and generous gift, and I think it is only right to say that the honor and credit of making it are shared with her father by the only remaining member of his family, who has entered heartily and religiously into the spirit which first devised and then carried out so beneficent a purpose.

On Easter Even of this year, the Reverend JOHN F. POTTER, M. D., died suddenly at Pompton, to which place he had removed only three weeks before to become Rector of the Parish. It was a strange and sad ending of a lonely life that his grave should be in a place which he had never visited until he went to die there.

An event in our Church history, too notable to be left untouched in an address like this, is the completion of the revised Prayer Book and Book of Offices by the General Convention which met in Baltimore last October. The original aim of the revision, as expressed by the clergyman who introduced the subject to the attention of the Church, was "enrichment and flexibility." The last has been thoroughly accomplished; and in the accomplishment of flexibility consists most of the enrichment. In a word, added or changed rubrics have imparted a new vitality to what before was bound down and tied into comparative lifelessness. The division of services, now legal and general, brings out in each the life and charm which are its own, and offends no reasonable prejudice. It is surprising, when one puts it to the test of experiment, what electric bells these rubrics sometimes are, opening that which was shut before and effecting by a single touch what years of effort would not have been able to secure in the way of changed language and arrangement. Thus a single rubric permits the omission of the Decalogue in the Communion Office on occasion, and this with the saying or singing of the Kyries at the end of the Summary of the Law, goes far to restore for those who wish it, the earlier portion of the Office as it is found in the First Book of Edward. It is something to be grateful for that in all this no one is offended, but that all are content and happy in the possession and use of the common heritage.

The General Convention, as most of you will remember, established five new Missionary Jurisdictions in what is often called the Home Field. Of these, four are now set apart, and Bishops have been consecrated for them who are now engaged in discharging to the best of their ability the difficult and responsible duties which have been laid upon them.

When a meeting of the house of Bishops, which had been especially called for March 1st, assembled in New York, its members, for reasons which they regarded as controlling, unanimously deferred the selection of a Missionary Bishop for the Peninsula of Northern Michigan until the next meeting of the General Convention. The house at the same time nominated Missionary Bishops for Shanghai in China, and Yeddo in Japan. The foreign field presents no new claim upon us except as it calls for a larger liberality and a warmer interest.

But in the four new Missionary Jurisdictions at Home there is much to induce thought and awaken the sense of responsibility.

I have said awaken the sense; for the responsibility itself, whether for the present or the future, can hardly be magnified. It is a peculiarity of our position among Christian and civilized nations, that almost our entire country is, in a sense, missionary ground. Is this fact lost sight of by Christian Churchmen in the splendor of our success as a Nation and the boundless increase of that material wealth, in the possession and increase of which we already outstrip all other Peoples? One could not, if he would, refuse all allusion to that great celebration in Chicago which commemorates the four hundredth anniversary of the discovery of this Western Continent; nor in alluding to it would it be in good taste, even were it possible, by any ill-timed suggestion to dim the brightness of so grand an occasion. Nevertheless, to the mind of the earnest believer, the very picture of the greatness and the growth suggests a responsibility commensurate with the greatness; and one can scarcely refrain from asking himself at times, whether the Home Field, so wide-spread and filling up so rapidly with uncongenial and heterogeneous populations, does not, at least for the present, and will not for some time to come, far over-tax the Christian ability of Churchmen to meet and supply its religious needs. Certainly, the greatness of the future of this people (pictured so vividly at Chicago), a picture which with all its high coloring is so likely to be realized, suggests a moral as well as a political power growing up between these oceans, which must make itself felt in the future for good or for evil over the whole world and throughout, who can tell, how many generations. In view of such a future, and the preparing religiously to meet it, the gifts of our optimistic and self-indulgent people are painfully small in behalf of Church extension at Home. It is a comfort to know that our own are at least increasing. The contributions of this Diocese to Domestic and Foreign Missions are really very much better now than they have been in past times. Certain Parishes are conspicuously faithful in this direction, and I cannot urge with too entire and serious an earnestness the other Parishes of the Diocese to emulate their example in this regard.

As a department of this work, acknowledged and accepted by the Board of Missions as such, and in close alliance with it, I commend once more to you the American Church Building Fund Commission. Its greater usefulness in the future must depend largely upon what our people now allow it to become. With larger means will result a lower rate of interest and even grants of money where such are really needed and will not be abused by those who receive them.

THE DIOCESE.

Within our own limits the signs of healthy growth have been encouraging during the year. Corner-stones of two churches have been laid, that of St. Luke's, Paterson, by Archdeacon Jenvey, on June 18th, 1892, and that of St. Andrew's, in South Orange, by myself, on St. Andrew's Day of the same year. Two churches have been consecrated. Two new churches have been built and opened for public worship; another is in process of construction; and two others have been greatly enlarged and beautified. Four new Parishes have been erected, three of them from Missions already existing, whose condition seemed to justify what I am always slow to encourage or consent to, where there is not good reason to believe that a Mission in becoming independent will be also self-supporting in the future.

St. Luke's Church, in Montclair, was consecrated on December 20th, 1892. Thirteen years before, the Parish had been threatened with extinction in consequence of a very heavy debt. It possesses now one of the largest and best stone churches in the Diocese, and is preparing to put up on the church grounds a Parish building equally substantial. This Parish is free from all indebtedness.

On the 25th of April, 1893, I had the pleasure of consecrating Trinity Church, Totowa, Paterson. This Church was established as a Mission about thirteen years ago. Its congregation is composed entirely of the working class, yet it has always maintained and supported its own services. There is no debt.

St. Luke's Mission Church, Paterson, whose cornerstone was laid in the early summer, has since been finished and opened for services. It is served by a Lay Reader under the direction of the Rector of St. Paul's Church, Paterson, and the attendance at the services is said to be encouraging.

On November 15th, 1892, I held an opening service in the new Christ Church, Jersey City, built for the use of that Parish by the late Reverend S. H. BATTIN, formerly its Rector. The lot and building have cost together between forty and fifty thousand dollars. The Church will seat about five hundred persons. It is substantially constructed and fully and handsomely furnished. The arrangements for the rendering of the service by a vested choir are ample and very appropriate in character.

On November 22d, the Church of the Holy Communion, South Orange, was reopened after enlargement by the addition of aisles to the original nave. This has nearly or quite doubled its former seating capacity. I may add that, contrary to fears entertained by some that such an enlargement might destroy the harmony of its proportions, the church building is really improved in appearance by the change. Of course its prospective usefulness is doubled to the great happiness of the earnest Rector. I cannot express too strongly my sense of the good work accomplished by Mr. BREWSTER during his brief Rectorship of this Parish.

On April 2d, 1893, in my visitation of Christ Church, Hackensack, I found there an enlarged and completed Church with a handsome façade and a fine tower containing a chime of fifteen bells. The Church now accommodates five hundred people and is one of the most completely supplied Parishes in the Diocese. This is the more remarkable as the original and much of the present population of the place, as of the Passaic and Hackensack valleys generally, however intelligent, had no inclination toward the Church or her services, but rather the contrary.

Another new Church now in process of construction and to be finished in the course of the summer is St. Andrew's in South Orange. The nave, which it is believed will suffice for present needs, is designed to accommodate about three hundred persons and is built of stone in good architectural style. The new Parish which has resulted so speedily in the securing of a large and valuable lot of ground and the partial erection of what will be a really good building was begun a little more than a year ago as a Mission by the Reverend ALEXANDER MANN. To his unwearied exertions and the zeal of a few others, especially of two ladies who gave up their drawing room for the Mission services—for months continuously—the success under GOD of this venture of faith is due. These, one and all, command and receive my heartfelt gratitude.

NEW PARISHES.

Grace Church Mission, Union Hill, and Trinity Church Mission, Totowa, Paterson, have within a few weeks become organized Parishes; the former with about one hundred and fifty, and the latter with more than two hundred communicants. The Union Hill Church, or Grace Church, Town of Union, as its legal title runs, owns a neat and churchly frame building placed in the midst of a populous and rapidly growing district, occupied chiefly by the families of working people. The Vestry and congregation have already in hand a portion of a fund for the erection of a Rectory.

The third Parish created this year from a Mission is St. Andrew's, South Orange, above referred to, whose organization was necessary in order to secure possession in fee simple of the very valuable lot of ground upon which the new Church stands.

The fourth Parish organized is St. Thomas', north of the railroad crossing in the Roseville district of Newark.

I do not think it would be quite gracious if I did not in this place express my warm sense of the liberality which has led a layman of large means to improve and adorn with costly furnishings the interior of the church at Madison; and which has led another layman, as a sacred memorial to one loved and taken away, to do a similar office with like liberality for the little Mission Church at Mendham.

There are other indications of new life and interest which I might refer to in detail were there time to do so, and as it is, there are two or three which I may not wholly pass by. In Franklin, or Nutley as it is now called, a large lot in a commanding position has been presented to the Parish and a fine rectory built upon it. The new church must follow before long. At Passaic, for years so sluggish and inert, they are already preparing to erect a new and fine church, to be finished, I hope, this Summer; and I may add that the congregation there has more than doubled in numbers. At Upper Montclair, interior changes have been made in their church building at no little cost and with singularly good taste, so as to render its small stone church one of the most attractive in the Diocese. For such signs of life, reviving or constant, we offer to God the tribute of our gratitude.

This hurried review of Diocesan growth and interest by no means exhausts the material in my possession. But I must not weary you. I should be glad to tell you not so much of great as of small things; of little pains or losses; of brave strugglings for a life in the Church that is painfully and hardly maintained; of the consultations together of little groups at work here and there in the corners of this, as indeed of every Diocese, who are glad and thankful for the occasional bits of good fortune, which are to them so great, and would be to most of you so small. Perhaps the Archdeacons will tell you of these things. For myself, I confess that in things ecclesiastical and spiritual, while by no means under-valuing, but on the contrary esteeming most highly, external things which are intrinsically good, Life has always seemed so much more than meat, and the Body than raiment. The Divine Master's word to His church, Lo, I am with you always, ever suggests to my mind a presence not only of blessing but of inspection and judgment; and I think of these blended things in thinking of His presence which I never doubt—Love and Judgment. The Great Physician with that unbroken Presence testing to His people the healthy circulation of His own Life of unselfish Love; laying His Head, as it were upon the breasts of those who call themselves His; hearing how the heart beats and judging according to His own proclaimed rule of spiritual life, namely, That as we are all baptized into One Body so we are all members one with another; and whether one member suffers all the members suffer with it: for that we are made in Holy Baptism by the Spirit the Body of Christ and members in particular.

The segregation of Christians into Parish organizations no doubt promotes a tendency to Parochial selfishness and individualism; but it obtained so early in the history of the Church that it may be accepted, as so many other things of which complaint is made may well be accepted, as the necessary outcome of a long experience where benefits are greater and more valuable than its defaults are injurious. Nevertheless the tendency just alluded to is present and should be understood and opposed and controlled by all of us. We should never forget that the Diocese is the Unit in Church life.

Another danger which I refer to because it is special rather than general and of more interest to us than to some others, is the occasional tendency in well-to-do and isolated suburban Parishes and congregations to become unconsciously mere religious coteries, and so to lapse into a condition of spiritual apathy and torpor. Of course the cause of this is originally the spirit of worldliness, which, in this day, allies itself so easily with a religious profession. The evil would be largely remedied if congregations would select not merely nominal communicants but men of earnest religious convictions for the Wardens and Vestrymen of their Parishes; for although to these bodies is given the charge of the temporalities only, no one needs to be told how paralyzing an influence a body of worldly Vestrymen can exert over the spiritual life and interests of a congregation. On the other hand the aid extended to a Rector by a body of religious, Churchly, and intelligent Vestrymen cannot be overstated. His personal power for good is enhanced and made more effectual. The entire Diocese feels the happy and helpful influence, and the only surprising thing is, that public sentiment within the Church does not compel such a result, the need of which is recognized by every thoughtful person whose attention has been at any time directed to the subject.

Let me, before concluding this address, once more endeavor to emphasize the importance of a united interest on the part of all in the work of those Diocesan charities which are at once the signs and the promoters of our religious and organic life. I refer to the hospitals and other agencies which exert so beneficent an influence not only upon their immediate beneficiaries, but indirectly and in a compensative way upon the Church; enhancing the respect which men always feel for power, and so for the Church which has and exerts the power to do what she professes to believe in. These hospitals need and should receive benefactions in the way of endowment in sums small or large from those who have the ability to make them. To the Guild of St. Barnabas and the other associations in Diocese or Parish which have done so much to make the work of the hospitals effective, I give my thanks and benediction. And I again appeal to all good people who love their Church and its work in behalf of the House of the Good Shepherd and of St. Katharine's Home. These charities have no doubt a number of influential friends and supporters. I would, however, by referring to them, in this place and at this time, seek to keep the knowledge of them before the entire people of this Church; that their good work may speak for the Church's life, and not merely represent the generosity and devotion of a few of its members.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese has attained such strength that it scarcely needs any appeal from me. The work has grown into the annual value of thousands of dollars, and its interest reaches into the remote Parishes and even Missions of the Diocese. What factors in our life of spiritual growth such things are or might be! Not only do they provide lessons and exercises in the religious activity without which men's life of faith must weaken and die, but they are besides influential promoters of unity and a kindly judgment of each other, among those who enter heartily into their work and associate lovingly together in the efforts to make it successful.

MISSIONS.

As my custom has been in recent years, I shall detain you but a few minutes with the missionary portion of the address as the subject will be treated in detail by the Archdeacons. As you have already been informed, three of our Missions, viz.: Trinity, Paterson ; Grace, Union ; and St. Andrew's South Orange ; have become Parishes within the year. They are self-sustaining and have indeed never asked anything in the way of support from the Diocese.

Within a month or two, Trinity Church, Arlington, has removed the debt on its Church lot amounting to eight hundred dollars. The congregations are good, averaging fifty or sixty at a service, and the communicants number about one hundred. These are generally in very moderate circumstances, but they work and give freely as their means permit. The grounds around the Church are being now graded and beautified.

St. Albans' Mission, Newark, is without a minister in charge at present. Services have been kept up during the interregnum, and the small but earnest body of worshippers keep well and heartily together. I owe very much to Archdeacon Walker for his unwearied interest in this Mission, especially since the resignation of the Missionary on Ash Wednesday last added so seriously to our anxiety on its behalf.

Epiphany Mission, Allendale, pays for its own clerical services. This Mission (originated and carried on for years by a layman) was for most of that time a very small speck indeed on our ecclesiastical map ; but it has cost the Diocese nothing and bids fair to become in time a self-supporting Parish.

The Mission at Hillsdale, now under the charge of Rev. Mr. Ladd, Rector at Norwood, was also self-originated. It is weak as yet in numbers, but the people are zealous. It has just succeeded in clearing off the remainder of debt from its very modest property.

The other Missions of the Diocese you are more familiar with. I leave the presentation of their interests and an account of them generally to the Archdeacons, for whose unselfish devotion to the interests committed to them I cannot speak in words of too high praise.

Affectionately Your Bishop,

THOMAS A. STARKEY.

Reports

I have received the following reports from the Reverend, the Archdeacons of the two Archdeaconries :

ARCHDEACONRY OF NEWARK.

To the Right Reverend Thomas A. Starkey, D. D., Bishop of Newark :

Owing to the fact that for the most part the Missions of this Archdeaconry are situated in small country towns where there is little or no increase of population, we cannot reasonably expect any rapid growth ; nevertheless a careful survey of the field shows much to encourage us in the prosecution of the work.

In spite of all discouragements there is considerable growth in our Missions.

Looking at the work from the barest utilitarian point of view, the Church in this Archdeaconry is receiving a large return for all that she gives for the sustentation of her Missions. In no Parishes of the Diocese is more work done and more souls ministered unto at so small an expenditure of money. This is the fact, but we find in it nothing to be proud of. That we have devoted self-denying Missionaries who are doing a grand work on semi-starvation salaries is no ground for self-congratulation on our part as the result of an economical administration.

In the nine aided Parishes and Missions of this Archdeaconry there is church property to the value of forty-five thousand dollars. Connected with these there are about nine hundred and fifty-three individuals—three hundred and seventy-seven communicants: five hundred and forty-eight Sunday-school teachers and scholars. By these statistics we observe that the united strength of these Missions is fully equal to that of the average strong self-supporting Parish. The cost to the Diocese of carrying on this important work is only about two thousand dollars a year, an almost insignificant sum compared with the amount of work accomplished. This meagre appropriation enables the six priests engaged to keep body and soul together; I would not venture to say that it furnishes them a living. Thanks are due to our energetic branch of the Woman's Auxiliary in helping to alleviate some of the burdens of this strained situation.

In viewing the various stations in detail we find many points of encouragement. It is exceedingly gratifying to report a decided growth in Trinity Mission, Arlington. Through the persevering efforts of the faithful Missionary the entire indebtedness ($800) of that promising Mission has been removed.

At Belvidere and Knowlton faithful work is being done, though, of course, the gain in numbers is small. Through the energy of the Missionary the Rectory at Belvidere has been put in thorough repair, a new roof having been laid on and the exterior of the house painted. For some time past two young ladies, communicants of St. James' Church, Knowlton, have conducted a very successful Sunday-school at the Delaware Water Gap, New Jersey side. It is the earnest wish of the Missionary to secure means to provide a Lay Reader for morning services at Knowlton during the summer months. Any contributions for that object will be gladly received.

Patient continuance in well doing best characterizes the work in the Missions at Hamburg and Vernon. Many a city Parish fails to show such a record of frequent services as that of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Hamburg. Here the daily offices of the Prayer Book are always said to the untold blessing of its faithful members.

At Mendham, the entire interior of the Church is being restored as a memorial.

At Phillipsburgh, notwithstanding the great discouragement of the first half of the year, owing to the failure to secure a Rector, yet since January, when the Rev. C. H. Beers took charge, the progress has well nigh compensated for the delay. Here, perhaps, is the most important work in this Archdeaconry—a Parish, which, without doubt, under its present management will soon become self-supporting.

Considerable increase is noted in St. Peters' Mission, Washington. Situated in a thriving town, this work has evidently taken root and grows with the place. Proof of this may be seen in the Parochial report of the Missionary, viz.: fourteen baptisms, twelve confirmations, and a total gain of fourteen communicants. Our active Missionary here also ministers every Sunday, to a congregation in the neighboring town of Oxford, four miles distant.

The Lay Reader at Christ Church, Stanhope, reports two hundred and seven individuals connected with that Mission, twenty-six baptisms, three of which were of adults, and a Sunday-school of seventy scholars. Through the kindness of the Rector of St. John's Church, Dover, the Mission enjoys a celebration of the Holy Communion at least once a month, and as often in addition as opportunity permits, in all twenty-three times during the past year.

I wish particularly to mention that we are also indebted to the Rector of St. John's Church, Dover, for the maintenance of services during the summer months of last year, in the Chapel on the grounds of Hotel Breslin, Lake Hopatcong. Provision should be made for the renewal of these services during the coming season without adding to our earnest brother's already burdensome duties.

With an active Priest in charge at Stanhope, assisted by a Lay Reader, services could be maintained there, at Landing and at Breslin, with great benefit to our work in that region.

St. Alban's Mission, Newark, while not one of our Diocesan Missions in the technical sense of the word, has been placed by the Bishop in the charge of the Archdeacon. This Mission, organized and maintained by the Bishop with the assistance of the Laymen's Association, has prospered during the eighteen months of its existence.

Notwithstanding the discouraging fact that for nearly three months past it has not had the ministrations of a Priest-in-charge, yet through the faithful efforts of a Lay Reader and the kind assistance of several of our city Clergy, services have been regularly maintained and no loss incurred. A prosperous Sunday-school of seventy scholars is in successful operation and a well-trained choir of men and boys is doing good work.

The Laymen's Association has secured as a site for a proposed chapel, five city lots on the corner of Thirteenth Avenue and Eighth Street, a most central and eligible situation and it is most earnestly hoped that means may be forthcoming, in the near future, to erect thereon a suitable and attractive Chapel.

Respectfully submitted,

MILLIDGE WALKER,

Archdeacon of Newark.

THE ARCHDEACONRY OF JERSEY CITY.

To the Right Reverend T. A. Starkey, D.D., Bishop of Newark:

The Mission work in this Archdeaconry continues to be of the most encouraging character.

Grace Mission, Town of Union, after its year of independent and sturdy work, has earned for itself a higher degree, and is now a Parish. It will not be mentioned hereafter in these reports.

Trinity Mission, Hillsdale, is now entirely out of debt. It began the year with a mortgaged indebtedness of $400. The faithful people of the Mission, following the lead of the Rev. Mr. Ladd, did what they could, and it was a great deal. Friends on the outside came to their help; the entire amount has been raised and the Mission stands free. The Archdeacon is greatly indebted to Drs. Holley, Merritt, Hughes and Stoddard, and to Messrs. Reazor, Christian and Osborne for generous contributions. The time has come when the Mission must go forward, purchase a better site and build a better building. This Mission has always been self-supporting. Nearly $1,200, all told, has been raised in the past year.

The Church of the Ascension, Jersey City, continues its progressive and remarkable work.

Since my last report an old street assessment of $342, which came to the present Missionary as a legacy from the past, has been paid, the interest on the $5,000 mortgage met, a beautiful brass lectern received as a memorial, a brass cover placed upon the font, and many other things have been given and done. The offerings of the Mission have amounted to $1,758.16. There have been fifteen baptisms, ten marriages, sixteen burials and twenty confirmed. The communicant list now numbers 185. Of these, 134 made their communion on Easter. The one thing needful for the complete success of this work is the payment of the $5,000 mortgage. With this paid the Mission could be self-supporting. The Archdeacon has offered to try to raise $500 from friends in the Diocese if the people of the Mission will raise another $500. This they doubtless will do during the coming Conventional year. Such an effort several times repeated will easily accomplish the desired end. The Rev. Mr. Cameron, fighting as he is one of the very hardest battles in one of the very hardest fields in the Diocese, is deserving the generous support of all who are in a condition to aid.

On the 16th of June, 1892, the Archdeacon, the Bishop being in Europe, laid the corner-stone of St. Luke's Chapel, South Paterson. The Rev. Messrs. Nickerson, Dorwart and Joralemon were present, together with a large gathering of the Laity. The work of construction was so vigorously pressed that the building was ready for use early in the fall. Considering the sum expended it is a remarkably seemly and convenient building. This work is under the immediate supervision of the Rev. Mr. Nickerson, of St. Paul's Church. Mr. Perrine, a student in the General Theological Seminary, being the Lay Reader in charge. The future is bright with promise. Great thanks are due the Sunday-school and members of St. Paul's Church for very substantial aid in money and moral support. There have been three baptisms. A class is now being prepared for confirmation. The offerings have amounted to $355.14. The Sunday-school numbers seventy-five. The Building Fund amounted to $1,784. Furnace and furniture cost over $200 in addition.

The Mission of the Good Shepherd, Fort Lee, continues its successful work under the leadership of the Rev. Mr. Sherwood. Not as much has been done as would have been done if Mr. Sherwood had been able to be in two places at one time. An appropriation ought to be made by the Board of Missions, if possible, to enable him to secure the assistance of a Lay Reader. The Missionary's report shows a very encouraging and healthy condition. There have been nine baptisms, two confirmed, five marriages, and eleven burials. The Sunday-school numbers 125. The offerings have amounted to $496.44.

Mr. D. A. Smith, Warden of the Mission of the Epiphany, Allendale, reports the Mission as being "in a moderately prosperous condition, holding its own well under many adverse circumstances."

The Rev. Mr. Hartman, with the approval of the Bishop, has given regular Sunday services, and such other services as have been required.

St. Thomas' Mission, Lyndhurst, is feeling the need of a resident Priest. The Rev. Mr. Clayton is doing all he can, but the work needs the presence of one living in the town. The property, which is worth $3,200, will be absolutely free of debt on the 1st of June. The town will be visited to see what can be done for a resident clergyman. If the Board could help somewhat, the people of the Mission might be able to do the rest. Five have been confirmed, six buried, one baptized and one couple married. There have been one hundred and fifteen public services with twelve celebrations of the Holy Communion.

The first year's work in St. Agnes' Mission, Lafayette, shows substantial progress. The building has been beautified by the erection of a reredos and by the tasteful decoration of the interior. Forty baptisms, fourteen persons confirmed, eight burials, and regular Sunday and week-day services show what is being done on the line of spiritual work. The work of the Mission is carried on by St. Mark's Church, Jersey City, under the direction of the Rev. Mr. Mortimer.

The Rev. Mr. Flichtner, of St. Paul's, Englewood, still directs and maintains the Mission at Nordhoff.

Very sincerely yours,

W. R. JENVEY,

Archdeacon of Jersey City.

Great kindness is shown the Rector and his family by those who ever take a deep interest in the church.

The people have been earnest and self-denying during the past year. The little band of Missionary Workers made the Lenten season fruitful with their contributions to the box sent to the Standing Rock Reserve. The Sunday-school is prospering under its energetic Superintendent. The severe frost of last winter damaged the steam heating apparatus in the Church to the extent of $200.00, which has been a heavy task to repair with our limited resources. The Teachers' Association enlarged the old church porch and converted it into an infant class room, with a seating capacity of about seventy, thus increasing the working facilities of the school. They have also began the issue of a Parish paper called "The Chimes," with a circulation of 125 copies.

The enlargement of the Church begun last June was completed at Easter. The total cost has been something over $20,000.00. Fourteen memorial gifts are included in its furnishings, among which is a chime of fifteen bells. The Parish was never more prosperous. Our income is larger than our expenses. Our expenditures show $3,000.00 more than our receipts, which is explained by the fact that the money was paid directly to Christ Hospital to endow a bed, and so while reported under Diocesan Expenditures, is not included in Parochial Receipts.

* By the terms of the will of the late Miss Johanna Taylor, whose life in the Parish was for many years one of singular devoutness and activity in good works, the sum of $200 was devised to the Parish to be used at its discretion.

† The residuary legatees under the will of Mrs. Emily M. Lord, deceased, have generously presented this sum of $5,000 as a permanent fund for the benefit of the Parish, in memory of the late Edward Crary Lord and Emily M. Lord, his wife, who for many years were faithful and devoted members of this Parish.

‡ Under the terms of the late Mrs. Emily M. Lord's will, the sum of $6,000 was devised to St. Barnabas Hospital for the support of a bed to be known as "the Edward Crary Lord bed" in the adult ward, and "for the support of a bed in the children's ward to be known as the 'Nina bed.'" This sum was paid through the hands of the Rector of the Church of the Redeemer, but is not entered as from the Parish; although a record is hereby made of it as received by the Diocese, so far as St. Barnabas Hospital is a Diocesan institution.

§ Under the terms of the will above named, the sum of $10,000 was given to the "Board of Missions, Foreign and Domestic, of the Protestant Episcopal Church, to be invested as a special fund, the income of which shall be applied to the general purposes of the Board."

It may be mentioned also, with reference to the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars, as contributed for the Morristown Memorial Hospital, that this is the amount actually contributed through Parochial channels. In addition, and more or less directly, in response to an appeal from the Rector, more than two thousand dollars were paid in by Parishoners to this Hospital through other instrumentalities.

The present Rector took charge of the Parish on December 1, 1892. These items in the Parochial statistics are therefore incomplete in some particulars, as to the number of public services, number of celebrations of the Holy Communion, for example. The other items are reckoned (from the Parish register) from May 15, the date of the last report. I have celebrated the Holy Communion 12 times in the Chapel of the St. Barnabas' Hospital, said Evensong at same place 12 times, buried 1 person there and baptized 1 child. The financial exhibit is from May 1, 1892, to May 1, 1893. The apparent discrepancy in receipts and expenditures is owing to gifts to the Parish not recorded. In addition to money contributions to the St. Barnabas Hospital, provisions to the value of $60 were sent to that institution on Thanksgiving Day. The pew rents are for eleven months only. We have lately paid off a mortgage of $800, which has for more than twelve years been upon our Church organ. The Sunday-school is more than self-supporting. This department sent $75 to Domestic Missions at Easter, and supports a scholarship in the Hope School for Indians in Springfield, South Dakota.

It is quite impossible to present an absolutely accurate report as to the number of families and individuals, and those items have been omitted. The report as to communicants is as nearly complete as it has been possible to make it; but it is not entirely satisfactory. The method of book-keeping which our work requires does not lend itself to a complete and accurate compliance with the requirements of the blank form of Parochial report furnished by the Secretary of the Convention. There is, therefore, a discrepancy between the total of receipts and that of expenditures. It is only apparent, however.

The summing up of all the various items of work as we have tried to give them, imperfect as it is, indicates a marked increase in our labors during the past year. The addition of two assistants to our working force—a Priest and a Deacon—has helped greatly to this result; and the continuance of the steady and faithful work of the Sisters of St. Margaret has made many things possible which could not have been accomplished so satisfactorily in any other way. The Sunday-school, the Guilds, the Sewing School, the Girls' Friendly Society and the constant work among the poor have been influenced and largely controlled and furthered by the Sisters; and to them is due the large increase in the amount received and disbursed for charitable objects.

By the bequest of Mrs. W. H. Oakley, who entered into rest, January 9th, 1893, the Rectory was freed from its debt of $779.00, and the Endowment fund enriched by one thousand dollars.

In the early spring an artesian well was sunk in the Rectory grounds at the cost of about $500.00, the gift of a lady in the Parish. In the summer, blinds were placed in the windows on the second floor and in the fall, the parlor, dining-room and halls were covered with a serviceable wood carpet.

In November rooms were rented and opened as Parish Rooms. They were provided with games, periodicals, weekly illustrated papers and a small library. Six months' experience has justified the venture.

Since making the last report of the Parish, further acquaintance with its population and records enables the making of a somewhat more accurate, though not entirely satisfactory report of communicants registered. The Rector finds it still beyond his power to give anything like an accurate statement of the numbers of families and souls in the Parish, and of those who have communicated at least once during the past year.

The excess of expenditures over receipts in this report will be mainly accounted for by the fact of a balance in the Treasurer's hands last May, and the carefully estimated value of work and donated materials in the several Missionary boxes sent off this year.

The Parish Church building has been greatly improved by the erection this winter of handsome oaken doors at the main entrance—the generous gift of a faithful member of the Parish. Since Advent Sunday, 1892, the services in this Church have been in conformity with the new Standard Prayer Book of 1892.

This report dates from the middle of June, when the present Rector took charge of the Parish. The Church was closed for repairs for three weeks. The St. Margaret's Guild recarpeted the entire Church, had the building thoroughly cleaned and paid for the alterations in Chancel.

A vested choir of twenty-four men and boys sang the service for the first time on the first Sunday in Lent. An organ has been purchased by St. John's Guild, also a new altar. About $1,500 has been raised for special objects by the various Guilds; $11,000 has been pledged toward the fund for a new Church.

On Easter, the Parish was made the recipient of a Litany desk of carved oak and brass, given by Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Armitage, in memory of their son, Charles William, and on St. Mark's Day—the time of the Bishop's visitation—of a processional cross of richly chased brass, mounted with jewels, given by Mr. and Mrs. James Simpson, in memory of their son, James Edward. Both memorials were blessed by the Right Reverend Father at that time.

The Parish has every reason to be thankful for the ways in which God has prospered it. During the past eighteen months, besides paying all current expenses, a little more than $4000 of indebtedness has been wiped out, $1,100 of which was cancelled through the liberality of Mr. David Henry, one of the mortgagees. The whole indebtedness is now $26,400, which the Parish is able to carry if the past prosperity continues.

January 1, 1893, I took charge by appointment of the Bishop; according to arrangement made by him I was absent at Philadelphia for seventeen days, at different times during the week, from January 10, to February 11.

We have recently rented a hall 25x45 over a store near the Church, which will be ready to occupy in a month or so, and will be of great use for secular meetings which cannot be held in the Church.

We live in hopes that the time may soon come when we may have a more central location for the Church, as its present position at one end of the town is one of the greatest drawbacks to the work.

The year has been remarkable in many ways. A St. Andrew's Brotherhood has been formed and is doing good work. A class of eighteen, the largest in the history of the Parish, was confirmed. The attendance at communion has been noticeably good. One thousand dollars has been paid on the Church debt, and by the time this report shall be printed, the remaining thousand dollars will, in all probability, be paid, clearing the Church building entirely of debt. This leaves only a $2,000 mortgage upon the Rectory. The finances in the Parish are in an excellent condition, and the Rector is thankful to God and under Him to a generous and willing people.

On the 8th of January, 1893, our beautiful Church, Sunday-school and Parish rooms were destroyed by fire. For more than four months the congregation has been worshipping in a school house. The insurance money, aggregating $35,776 having been recovered and other amounts contributed, the vestry have purchased a choice site, and intend soon erecting a church building adequate to the necessities of a growing town. Moneys received thus far toward the rebuilding of the Church and pledges made not having been expended are not placed among the expenditures.

The interior of the Church has been put into a thorough state of repair during the year. Through the kindness of a member of the congregation the walls have been retinted and the wood work painted. The Women's Guild supplied a new carpet for the Church and Vestry, and the grounds have also been improved. A new society called the Junior Guild has been formed and comprises a large number of the young people of the Parish. Their first work was to provide a new Chamber organ for the use of the Sunday-school, and a large number of books for the Sunday-school library. The Altar Guild has done excellent work during the year, and the Women's Guild has sent a large box of clothing and useful articles to a Missionary in Wyoming. The members of the Chapter of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew have provided a Parish room for the use of the Guilds in connection with the Parish.

ENDOWMENT FUND.

This account has been increased during the year, by the receipt of the Lord legacy of $6,000, making the total amount now on hand $17,100; all of which is invested in proper securities, mostly at five per cent.

The twenty-one building lots of the Wallace property on South Tenth Street, are yet unsold and consequently non-productive of income.

THE HOSPITAL PROPERTY.

No important changes or additions have been made during the year; the cost of land, buildings and furnishing, to date, being $85,288.44, and all is properly insured.

LIABILITIES.

$20,000 on bond and mortgage, and $10,000 on discount notes—an increase of $2,500 during the year on this account—representing the accumulated deficiency in current expenses for the past six years.

An extraordinary addition of some $8,000 to this account has come during the year by the adverse decision of the United States Supreme Court in the Hayes' will case, by which the Hospital is required to surrender the $5,000 received in 1884, paying interest thereupon, and cost of litigation—making the total of liabilities about $38,000.

REPORT OF THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON THE
HOSPITAL OF ST. BARNABAS

Appointed May 17, 1892.

Report Made and Adopted in Convention, May 17, 1893.

The Special Committee to whom was referred that part of the Bishop's Address delivered at the Diocesan Convention of 1892, which referred to St. Barnabas' Hospital, Newark, beg leave respectfully to submit the following report:

The members of this special committee have held a number of meetings during the past conventional year, and have seriously endeavored to secure such information as would enable the committee to perform the specific duties entrusted to it with some degree of efficiency. These specific functions contemplate only the report to this Convention of the best means, in the judgment of the committee, to secure the financial aid adequate to the present need and the growing demand of the Hospital, and particularly of such action as may be advisable to carry out the suggestions made by the Bishop in the annual address above mentioned.

Your committee has taken it for granted that the administration and management of St. Barnabas' Hospital are in themselves fully worthy of support; but it is glad to state that this assumption is based upon its own knowledge of such worthiness. Without it, all methods and efforts to enlist financial support would be useless.

St. Barnabas' Hospital, in Newark, both in the spirit and letter of its operation, may confidently base an appeal for sustentation upon the evidence it now presents of noble work nobly done.

Your committee does not feel willing, however, to approach its duties without expressly recognizing the thoughtful methods and unselfish zeal which characterize the efforts of those who are now, and for some years past have been, making its work and its wants known to the Diocese and the public.

Each month in the St. Barnabas' Hospital Review, the attention of hundreds is called in a very attractive manner to the affairs of the Hospital. It is indeed in keeping with the duties of this special committee, to take this method to secure, if possible, an added interest in this excellent publication.

The purpose of the Bishop's address and the animus of this committee are one in seeking supplementary sources of financial aid to this Hospital.

Before proceeding to the more definite recommendations, your committee, while acknowledging the triteness of the following suggestions, nevertheless ventures to call the attention of this Convention to them in hope that they may bear some fruit. Recently a very large gift was made to a certain enterprise. It came from an unusual source. The one to whose efforts it was due that the gift was made, was asked: "How did you get this gift?" The answer is instructive: "I ventured to ask for it." It was really in accordance with the Master's direction, "Ask and ye shall receive." Your committee is therefore bold to ask, and to advise others to ask for legacies in behalf of St. Barnabas' Hospital. There are members of the Church in this Diocese, as in all Dioceses, who, upon approach of death, or in providing for the disposition of their property by devise, are really and conscientiously desirous to leave a portion of their worldly goods to perpetuate the loving work of Christ, but who, for one cause or another, never bring their desires to fruition.

Your committee feels confident that legacies in behalf of St. Barnabas' Hospital will be wisely devised, and asks most serious attention to this source of beneficence.

In this connection it is gratifying to announce that by the will of the late Mrs. Emily M. Lord, of Morristown, St. Barnabas' recently received the sum of $3,000 to endow the "Edward Crary Lord Bed," and $3,000 to endow the "Nina Bed," so named in beloved memory of a husband and child now in paradise.

Your committee begs leave to report as the result of its meetings, that while its members are conscious of the demands of local institutions in various parts of the Diocese which hinder the growth of a wide spread interest in the Hospital of St. Barnabas at Newark, they nevertheless wish to urge very strongly the general adoption of the admirable plan of the Right Reverend the Bishop of the Diocese, viz.: the formation of local guilds in every Parish, whose purpose shall be to contribute to both the current expenses and the endowment fund of the Hospital. It is their belief that this plan is decidedly the most practicable for the purpose in view.

The committee would also suggest the desirableness of the observance of a "Hospital Sunday" throughout that part of the Diocese which ought to be mainly interested in the Hospital of St. Barnabas; and that St. Katharine's Guild be requested to assume the work of distributing throughout this Archdeaconry, envelopes for collections and mite-chests for the same purpose, looking after the receipts of the latter. It is believed that the organization of such a society as the Bishop suggests will be best secured by the appointment in each Parish in this Arch-deaconry of at least one representative of said Guild.

H. S. BISHOP,

President.

F. B. REAZOR,

Secretary.

W. M. HUGHES.

CHRIST HOSPITAL, JERSEY CITY.

The Council herewith submits to the Diocese, the friends of the Institution, and the public, the record of another year's work in maintaining and extending the usefulness of Christ Hospital, whose doors are open for every creed, nationality, and color :

Patients treated in Wards and Private Rooms.....	507
Patients treated in Dispensary.....	1,428
Patients treated in Eye and Ear Department.....	249
Total number of Patients cared for.....	2,184

There have been, however, 3,775 treatments in the Dispensary and Eye and Ear Departments.

Of those occupying beds there were :

Episcopalians	69
Roman Catholics.....	157
All Denominations.....	281
	507

The expense incurred is about one thousand dollars a month, to maintain the Institution, and of this amount only one-quarter is received from patients, etc., and three-quarters represent the charity work.

To provide this, is a constant care to the Council and Hospital Guilds, and the increasing interest on the part of the charitably disposed is greatly appreciated, but we need to extend and strengthen this interest in every possible way. St. Luke's Guild, organized in 1892, seeks to obtain annual subscriptions for the charity work, and every person who subscribes five dollars or more, yearly, is a member. This ought to meet with a large number of subscribers, and subscribers may extend their interest by becoming themselves solicitors. This Guild has raised nearly one thousand dollars in its first year, and every one should consider it a privilege to annually subscribe to maintain the charity work of Christ Hospital.

The Executive Committee have had under their oversight the monthly expenditures, and they have met monthly and acted promptly on all matters demanding their attention; and they are happy to find that nearly one hundred patients have been cared for this year more than last, at a somewhat less expenditure. This speaks well for the economy of the Institution, and the Council desire to express their appreciation of the interest taken and efficiency manifested by the Superintendent, under whose management this has been effected.

The Abercrombie Guild has seventy-one members, and the Guild has continued its work with zeal and faithfulness, conducting a Fair in the Spring, and Donation Days in the Autumn, which filled our store-room with all kinds of supplies. They have raised, together with the interest on their Endowments, over two thousand dollars, which has been paid to the Treasurers, while their Endowment Fund has increased over five thousand dollars during 1892; so that their Endowment of twenty-five thousand dollars a year ago is now a little more than thirty thousand dollars.

St. Mary's Guild has seventy-two members, and its chief work is to pay the interest and reduce the principal on the bonded debt incurred in the building of the new Christ Hospital. This is accomplished largely through the system of Mite Boxes, scattered all over our cities, which are collected from quarterly by the active members of the Guild. The increase in this work during the past few years is very interesting, as shown in the following comparison:

1884	$445 35
1885	698 79
1886	829 89
1887	752 49

1888	800 02
1889	816 93
1890	1,056 42
1891	1,108 93
1892	1,200 00

Total from Mite Boxes in nine years..... $7.708 82

while during this time the number of boxes has increased from 135 to 424.

The Chaplain has continued his work during the year, assisted by such of the Clergy as could be obtained on Sunday afternoons, which is a very difficult thing, as they have their own parish duties to attend to. He has visited the sick, buried the dead, and rendered willing services at all times.

The Collector has been able to devote more of his time to this work, and has received for the Hospital nearly fifteen hundred dollars in money and donations.

The Medical Board has rendered the Hospital a service, which is bringing it into great favor with those who have been its patients; and the Council desire to express their gratification at the interest taken and the efficiency manifested in the medical and surgical work of the Institution.

The Training School is now in successful operation. It has graduated three Trained Nurses during the year, and has now eight pupils. The personal interest taken in this work by our Vice-President, the Superintendent, Committee, and Medical Board, is appreciated by the Council, and the influence this work is giving our Hospital, and the demand for the services of our Trained Nurses, on the part of the public, has already placed it among the successes of our Hospital undertakings.

The members of the Council, Medical Board, Abercrombie Guild, and St. Mary's Guild, now constitute a band of nearly two hundred voluntary workers, each one in their own department of work striving to maintain and render successful the efficiency of the Institution.

Christ Hospital has gathered strength in the past year, even beyond our expectation. Its friends have increased; its domestic arrangements have been well conducted; its care and healing of the sick, vigilant and efficient; its building fund indebtedness cared for and reduced; its endowments increased; its contributions, subscriptions and donations enlarged; and the usefulness of the Hospital extended to a greater number of patients. With this record of the work, we thank all who have aided in any way to sustain and promote it; and we commend the work to a charitable public, who already know that Christ Hospital stands for the sick and suffering of every name—and may all deem it a privilege to help maintain and strengthen it, for Christ's sake, and for the sick and suffering in the time of their necessity.

ST. KATHARINE'S HOME.

32 Reservoir Avenue, Jersey City Heights.

Under the Charge of the Sisters of St. Margaret.

PRESIDENT—The Bishop of Newark.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE—The Rev. G. C. Houghton, M. A., Warden; the Rev. G. H. Moffett, M. A., Chaplain; Mrs. Alexander, Treasurer, Castle Point, Hoboken, N. J.; Mrs. W. M. Hughes, Secretary, Morristown, N. J.; the Rev. T. W. Nickerson, Jr., B. D.; A. J. Loomis, M. D.; Mrs. Edward H. Wright, Miss J. R. Olmstead, Mrs. W. E. Tillinghast.

In reading over the reports of the Home for the last three years and comparing them with the one which is to be read today, one might be struck with the thought that less has been done since our last report than in any previous year.

We cannot report as we did in the first year of the inception of the work, of the largely extended efforts to make known the needs of the Home, nor of the preparation of the first house, nor of the plans for purchasing the one in which we now are. We cannot report, as we did in the two following years, the accomplishment of these plans and the addition of the much needed chapel and laundry, nor the encouraging financial results following upon the ways and means employed to pay for them.

But a closer study of the work will reveal the fact that we may with every reason claim for this year's work the greatest results of all, for we can report the greatest results, not in brick and mortar, not in dollars and cents, not in great gifts and offerings, but in that for which all these were but preparatory—in living souls. If we have been preparing the ground and sowing the seed heretofore, this year we are reaping the greatest harvest, and those most interested in the work can tell us how hopeful it is. Never before in any one year have so many been cared for.

Since November 1st, 1891, thirty girls have applied for admission to the home, of whom fifteen have been admitted. Twenty-six in all have been in the Home during the year. As you will see by Sister Cora's report, two of these girls were only fourteen years of age when they were admitted, three were fifteen, one sixteen and two eighteen.

Does not this fact alone indicate that St. Katharine's Home, the only one of its kind in America, is not only greatly needed but most helpful? Those who come to it for shelter are girls, not hardened women, not despairing, but those, who, without this Christ-like house of mercy and help, would become worse than lost.

I wish that all women would stop and think of these girls of fourteen and fifteen, think what all this means to them. There is no report that can be written and read at a public meeting which can do justice to the misery of such cases or can express all the good that this Home does. Think of the life into which most of these girls would have drifted if no one had offered them this shelter. Think of the misery staring them in the face. Many of them would be sent from their own homes. Where?—Here they are brought under the influence of the Sisters, whose example of self-sacrifice and holy living alone must help to make them good. They have a year before them in which they can learn the better part of life and are taught to be self-helpful. Of all the institutions for protecting girls unfortunate as these, this is the only one of which I know that cares for them in this truly motherly way. St. Katharine's Home shelters them, cares for them and their babies and teaches them not only to help themselves, but also that Christ, in His Infinite Mercy helps and cares for them.

We ask you to give the report of this year's work your earnest consideration. The support of twelve girls and their babies, even with the most economical management, necessitates large expenses. The Treasurer's report will show how unusually economical the management is.

It has been found necessary that the house should be painted and repaired. This, of course, involves an outlay of a large sum of money and it is the hope of those in charge of the finances of the Home that the donations and subscriptions will be unusually generous this year.

In this place we cannot forbear speaking of the gratuitous and most acceptable services of Dr. Loomis. Since the Home was started he has attended all of the cases of illness with greatest care and success. This report would be most incomplete if it did not recognize his generosity and faithfulness.

If our annual subscriptions could be increased this coming year, and if the friends of the Home would make an effort to secure these, the work would be greatly facilitated. Part of the money the past year has come from entertainments and this source cannot be regularly relied upon. People grow tired of being entertained, even for the most worthy charity, while the same amount of money paid individually for tickets would help us much more as an annual subscription. Certainly no one of us can afford to have it upon our conscience that any poor soul has been refused admittance to this Home because we lack the means of support, and we ask you to do all in your power to help us in this merciful work, done in the name of the Master. "Forasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these, ye have done it unto me."

I. H. HUGHES,

Secretary.

HOUSE OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD, ORANGE.

This Home for aged and infirm members of the Church is gradually increasing its work, adding to its attractiveness as a Home, and augmenting its funds. The number of its inmates has increased from ten to fourteen since the last report, and legacies have been received and invested towards an endowment to the amount of $5,500 during the year. As this report goes to press an "open air" entertainment is being prepared for on a liberal scale, in the grounds of one of the Managers, from which large receipts are anticipated.

Early in the year Miss S. Louise Shelton, an experienced matron, was made head of the house, and under her supervision its work has been carried on with great acceptance to the Managers of the Institution and especially to the inmates, whose comfort has been Miss Shelton's especial care.

The Sunday services and week-day prayers, together with a monthly communion, have been regularly kept up by the Chaplain assisted by the Clergy of the Parishes constituting the management.

A. SCHUYLER,

TITLE I, CANON 1, § II.

OF THE TESTIMONIAL OF LAY DEPUTIES.

Lay Deputies to the Convention shall present Certificates of their election in the following form:

[Name of the Church, the place and date.]

This certifies that at a meeting of the congregation of this Church for the purpose of electing Church Officers and Deputies to the Convention (or for the purpose of electing Deputies to the Convention, if the meeting be for that purpose alone) A. B., C. D. and E. F., being members of the congregation and communicants of the Church, were duly chosen to represent the congregation in that body for the year ensuing. In testimony of which, I have hereunto set my hand (or, if two Wardens subscribe, we have set our hands) the day and year above written.

N. B. —The signature of either the Rector or the Secretary of the Vestry is sufficient; if neither the Rector nor the Secretary signs, then the signatures of both Wardens are necessary. A Clergyman who is simply Minister-in-charge or Missionary cannot sign.

The Lay Representation is limited to three Deputies, whose names in full should be carefully and legibly written.

Three Alternate Deputies must also be elected and certified to in the same manner as the Deputies. (See Title I, Canon 6, § II, [2].)

In order to secure this, the Secretary will forward a blank form to every Parish, and earnestly asks the PROMPT attention of the Clergy.

By the terms of the Constitution and Canons, the Deputies must be members of the congregation and communicants of the Church; also contributors to its support, and worshippers in the Church of the Parish which elects them for six calendar months next before the election, and in Free Churches must have handed in their names as such to the Rector or Minister, in writing, six months before the election. (See Title I, Canon 6, § II, [3] and [4].)

The Committee on Constitution and Canons respectfully report that they have had under consideration the amendment to Canon 3, of Title III, referred to the Committee by the Convention of 1893, (Journal, page 70), and recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, That Canon 3, of Title III, is hereby amended by adding § III. All new Canons and Amendments to Canons, shall take effect on the first day of September following the adoption thereof, unless it be otherwise ordered by the Convention.

Resolved, That § III, of Canon 3, of Title III, take effect immediately.

All which is respectfully submitted.

WM. M. HUGHES,
EDWIN A. WHITE,
F. W. STEVENS,
J. B. VAN WAGENEN.

There being no objections, this report was adopted according to Rule 3, XIII of the Rules of Order.

The Rev. Mr. RICHMOND, then presented Report No. 2, of the Committee on Constitution and Canons.

The Committee on Constitution and Canons respectfully report that they have had under consideration the amendment to § II, of Canon 6, of Title I, referred to the Com-

"In all churches male communicants, of full age, not under suspension, shall be eligible to office and entitled to vote at any election, provided they (1) have been for at least six calendar months next before said election regular contributors to the current expenses of the parish holding the election, and (2) have been worshippers therein for at least the same period."

The object of the amendment as proposed is to admit to the franchise in churches in which all or some of the pews are rented, a class of voters not admitted under the present canon. The Committee have endeavored to prepare an amendment so as best to accomplish this end, not, however, requiring the admission of such class of voters in all cases, but permitting it in any church when deemed best by the corporation thereof. This amendment has no effect whatever in the case of free churches. In presenting the amendment it has been thought best incidentally to transfer the clause now at the end of (3) to the end of the whole section with necessary change of language.

The Committee accordingly recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, That [3] of § II, of Canon 6, of Title I, is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

[3] Any baptized male, of full age and good moral character, shall be eligible to office in any Parish, or entitled to vote at an election of Church officers, who (1) professes to adhere to the Protestant Episcopal Church and to no other religious body, and who (2) for six calendar months next before said election has been a worshipper in the Church of said Parish, and (3) the holder of a sitting therein, and (4) paid the rent due thereon at the end of the last quarter before the election.

Resolved, That [5] of § II, of Canon 6, of Title I, is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

[5] In all churches, male communicants of full age, not under suspension, who have been admitted communicants on confirmation in the parish holding the election, or received on canonical certificate from another parish, shall be eligible to office and entitled to vote at any election, provided they (1) have been worshippers in the Church of the parish holding the election for six calendar months next before said election; and (2) have in writing at least six calendar months before said election presented their names as voters to the Rector or Senior Warden, and (3) have been for at least six calendar months next before said election regular contributors to the current expenses of the parish holding the election, according to a specific mode adopted and prescribed by the Rector, Wardens, and Vestrymen of the parish for the purpose of this canon at least six calendar months before the election: provided, however, that no person not otherwise entitled to vote and hold office shall be entitled to vote and hold office under this sub-section until the Rector, Wardens, and Vestrymen shall have adopted and prescribed such specific mode.

Resolved, That § II, of Canon 6, of Title I, is hereby amended by the addition of the following sub-section:

[6] In parishes which have charters wherein the qualifications of voters are prescribed, no provisions of this canon that may conflict with such charter shall apply.

All which is respectfully submitted.

WM. RICHMOND,
WM. M. HUGHES,
EDWIN A. WHITE,
FREDERICK W. STEVENS,
J. B. VAN WAGENEN.

On motion of the Rev. F. J. CLAYTON, it was

Resolved, That Clergymen of other dioceses, Clergymen of this Diocese not otherwise entitled to seats, and candidates for Holy Orders, who may be present, be admitted to honorary seats in this Convention, and that they be requested to hand their names to the Secretary.

Which was adopted.

The Rev. Mr. RICHMOND then moved the following Resolution.

Resolved, That § II of Canon 6, of Title I, is hereby amended by the addition of the following sub-section.

[6] In Parishes which have charters wherein the qualifications of voters are prescribed, no provision of this Canon that may conflict with such charter shall apply.

Which was adopted.

The Rev. Mr. RICHMOND then moved the following.

Resolved: That [5] of § II of Canon 6 of Title I is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

[5] In all churches, male communicants of full age, not under suspension, who have been admitted communicants on confirmation in the parish holding the election, or received on canonical certificate from another parish, shall be eligible to office and entitled to vote at any election, provided they (1) have been worshippers in the church of the parish holding the election for six calendar months next before said election; and (2) have in writing at least six calendar months before said election presented their names as voters to the rector or senior warden; and (3) have been for at least six calendar months next before said election regular contributors to the current expenses of the parish holding the election, according to a specific mode adopted and prescribed by the Rector, Wardens, and Vestrymen of the parish for the purposes of this canon at least six calendar months before the election; provided, however, that no person not otherwise entitled to vote and hold office shall be entitled to vote and hold office under this sub-section until the Rector, Wardens, and Vestrymen shall have adopted and prescribed such specific mode.

The Rev. GEORGE S. BENNITT moved the following as a substitute for Rev. Mr. RICHMOND's Resolution.

Resolved, That Title I, Canon 6, § 2, be amended by striking out sub-sections [3], [4], [5] and substituting a new sub-section [3], to read as follows:

[3] Any baptized male of full age and good moral character, shall be eligible to office in any parish, or entitled to vote at an election of church officers, who (1) professes to adhere to the Protestant Episcopal Church, and to no other religious body, and (2) for six calendar months next before said election has been a worshipper in the

This section shall not apply to Parishes which have charters wherein the qualification of voters are prescribed.

The Rev. Mr. BENNITT moved that this substitute, with the original resolution, be referred to the Committee on Constitution and Canons.

The Rev. JAMES CAMERON moved that the whole subject be laid on the table; which was lost.

The Missionary business of the Diocese being the order of the day:

The Rev. MILLIDGE WALKER, Archdeacon of Newark, read his report to the Bishop of the Missionary work in his Archdeaconry. (See appendix to the Episcopal Address.)

The Rev. WILLIAM R. JENVEY, Archdeacon of Jersey City, read his report to the Bishop of the Missionary work in his Archdeaconry. (See appendix to the Episcopal Address.)

The Report of the Board of Missions was then read by its Secretary, the Rev. ALEXANDER MANN.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS.

The Board of Missions of the Diocese reports to the Convention as follows:

Five meetings of the Board have been held during the past Diocesan year.

Twelve Mission stations have been maintained.

St. Luke's, Phillipsburgh, in charge of the Rev. CLARENCE H. BEERS.

St. Mark's, Mendham, in charge of the Rev. LEVI JOHNSTON.

St. Peter's, Washington, in charge of the Rev. JAMES A. MCCLEARY.

Christ, Stanhope, in charge of the Rev. WILLIAM M. PICKSLAY.

The Treasurer's Report is appended.

The amount which each Parish has contributed may be seen from the printed schedule which is in the hands of the Convention.

In accordance with the provision of the Canon, the Board reports that it has secured nothing for its work from the following Parishes and Missions during the past year:

Christ Church.....	East Orange
St. Paul's.....	Englewood
St. Mary's.....	Jersey City
St. Matthew's.....	Jersey City
Holy Innocents'.....	West Orange
St. James'.....	Ridgefield
Grace.....	Town of Union
Holy Communion.....	Norwood

According to the Treasurer's Report which closes May 1st, there was a balance in the Treasury of $50.58; but there was also due the Missionaries on that date $378.12. There is therefore a deficit for the year of $330.00 in round numbers. We hope that the Convention will not allow the new Board of Missions to begin its year's work hampered with this debt. Last year we raised on the floor of the Convention by personal pledges $790.00. This amount was expended in making good the deficit of last year, amounting to about $450.00, and the balance was by resolution of the Convention applied to the payment of salaries due the Missionaries prior to the enactment of the present Missionary Canon. We are glad to say that all old debts have been settled, and that this sum of $330.00 now due the Missionaries represents our whole indebtedness. This amount we ask the Convention to raise by personal pledges that the new Board may start free of debt.

It is not pleasant for the Board to come before the Convention again and confess a deficiency in the Missionary Treasury. True, the amount is not large, but it is mortifying to have any deficiency whatever. We do not think that we can be charged with extravagance. It will be remembered that the last Convention authorized the Board to base its appropriation for the present year upon the expectation of receiving $4000.00. As a matter of fact our appropriations for the year have been only $3025. Our receipts, including balance from last year, pledges at Convention, and canonical offerings, amounted to $3910.98. Of this sum, however, $1067.50 was expended in settlements of arrears due prior to April 30, 1893, leaving the amount available for this year only $2843.48. Unless, therefore, the Parishes of the Diocese increase their offerings for Missions, we must either still further reduce our scanty appropriations, or face an annual deficit at Convention. The responsibility, the Board feels, rests not with the Laity, but with the Clergy of this Diocese. If all Rectors would only strive to interest their people in the cause of Diocesan Missions, and would urge with some enthusiasm the duty of sustaining them, there would be no difficulty in raising annually the small amount of $4000.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Mr. WILLIAM M. DEEN, moved the following:

Resolved, That the sum of $4000 be raised for Missionary purposes of the Diocese by apportionment among the Parishes on the basis of the salary paid to the Rector.

The Rev. Dr. HUGHES offered the following as a substitute:

Resolved, That the question of apportionment for the Missionary funds of the Diocese be referred to the Board of Missions, with instructions to report to the next Convention a method to put the same into effect.

The Rev. Dr. SCHUYLER offered the following as a substitute, which was accepted by Mr. DEEN, the mover of the original resolution.

Resolved, That the Secretary call the roll of parishes, and that a response be asked from, each for its pledge towards a sum of not less than $4,000. for Diocesan Missions, during the ensuing year.

Which was agreed to.

After discussion, the Rev. Dr. SCHUYLER, moved a reconsideration of this resolution, and his motion was carried.

The question was then taken on the resolution offered by Dr. HUGHES, which was adopted.

The Rev. Mr. RICHMOND offered the following:

Resolved, That the Board of Missions is hereby authorized to make and send to the different parishes a statement of the least amount that should be given by each parish for Diocesan Missions for the present Convention year, on such plan of apportionment as they may deem best, on a basis of expenditure of $4,000. and that the clergy are hereby urged to honour such apportionment.

Which was adopted.

On motion it was

Resolved, That a Committee of three be appointed to nominate a Board of Missions.

The chair appointed as such Committee, the Rev. WILLIAM RICHMOND, the Rev. F. B. REAZOR, and Mr. HENRY HAYES.

The Rev. Mr. OSBORNE, Chairman of the Committee on the Increase of the Episcopal Fund, reported as follows:

The Committee appointed at the last Convention "to prepare and present a plan for the increase of the Episcopal Fund," begs leave to present the following report:

The extraordinary financial depression which has prevailed during the past year, and which still exists, will make any effort to increase the Episcopal Fund at the present time a work of difficulty, and any plan for such increase should be carefully devised and adapted to the financial situation.

This Committee suggests that in the preparation of such plan the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund be authorized and requested to co-operate.

The Rev. Dr. SCHUYLER made the following report on the American Church Building Fund Commission.

AMERICAN CHURCH BUILDING FUND.

REPORT OF COMMISSIONERS.

The amount received for this fund from the Diocese of Newark during the Conventional year, according to the report of the Special Secretary, HON. L. BRADFORD PRINCE, is $405.45.

The following are contributing parishes, to wit: Christ Church, Hackensack; Grace Church, Jersey City; Church of the Redeemer, Morristown; Mrs. Frances C. Henderson, Grace Church, Orange; All Saints, Orange; St. Paul's, Paterson; A. C., Calvary Church, Summit; St. John's, West Hoboken; Grace, Greenville.

This is a slight improvement over former years in the number of contributing parishes. But they are only one sixth of the whole number, and even a less proportion of the larger parishes of the Diocese. Considering the conceded usefulness and importance of this fund to the Church at large, and especially in the North and West, we call the attention of the Clergy and Laity of the non-contributing parishes to their duty in the premises.

ANTHONY SCHUYLER,
P. EDWARDS JOHNSON,
Commissioners.

The Tellers for the Lay vote reported that the following persons, having received a majority of the votes cast for the Committees and Officers named, were elected by the Laity.

For Standing Committee: Mr. HENRY HAYES, Mr. FREDERICK W. STEVENS, Mr. EDWIN A. STEVENS, Mr. ALFRED MILLS.

On motion of the Rev. WILLIAM RICHMOND,

Resolved, That the papers relating to Canon 6, of Title I, referred to the Committee on Constitution and Canons, be recalled from this Committee.

The Rev. Mr. MANN presented the Report of the Special Committee on the List of Delinquent Parishes in payment of interest on Parish Bonds (see page 43) reported as follows.

The Special Committee to which was referred the matter of remission of arrears on parish bonds for the Bishop's salary, reports:

That, in its judgment, this matter should be left in the hands of the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund, as being the men best qualified to judge of the merits and needs of each particular case, and would therefore recommend that this course be pursued.

FREDERICK B. CARTER,
ALEXANDER MANN,
HENRY HAYES.

The recommendation of the Committee was adopted.

The Rev. Mr. CLAYTON, for the Committee on Unfinished Business, reported that the committee on State Legislation had not reported.

The Convention joined in singing a hymn and in prayer, and, after the benediction by the Bishop, adjourned sine die.

FIFTEENTH ANNUAL ADDRESS

OF THE

Rt. Rev. Thomas A. Starkey, D.D.

BISHOP OF THE DIOCESE.

DEAR BRETHREN OF THE CLERGY AND LAITY :

Once more I ask you to accept my cordial greeting on this fifteenth occasion of our annual meeting in Diocesan Council and to unite with me in the heartfelt prayer that each coming year which God vouchsafes to us, may witness in our hearts and lives the presence and power of a more entire devotion to Himself and to the sacred and responsible work which He has given us to do.

There has been nothing of a specially marked character to record in the history of the Diocese during the year just closed ; only the steady progress in a quiet way which is perhaps not the worst sign of a strengthening life. In the world, on the other hand, at least in our American portion of it, there has been widespread financial disaster and distress. I have no need to remind the older men among you, how these seasons of monetary disturbance have recurred at intervals with an almost mathematical regularity in the past industrial history of the country. Although this is not the occasion for a discussion of the causes to which such phenomena are due, I am, nevertheless, far from admitting that the Church has no interest or mission in connection with the rapidly increasing alienation of capital and labor, or the alarming strain growing more and more tense with each passing year between employers and employed.

The Church's heart—whatever misinformed men may say—has always beaten, stroke by stroke, with the agitations of Humanity, and she can and does and will ever continue to bear witness, whether men hear or forbear, until both of these classes are compelled to accept her witness as true, that there is a higher standard for business men to accept than the mere dicta of selfish interests, or present personal convenience, and that, for both employer and employed, righteous dealing and mercifulness are not mere matters of abstract moral theory, but actual conditions of the successful business relations to be maintained permanently between man and man.

While on this subject, I may be allowed, perhaps, to turn over a page in my own memory, as I refer to the great change which has taken place during the past forty years in the relations sustained by this Church toward what are called the working classes. Less than half a century ago, it was known and always spoken of as the Church of the wealthy and cultured class, for these were then almost synonymous terms. Now it is becoming rapidly a Church for workingmen as much as for the others. With such changed conditions come new responsibilities and new sources of anxiety, as the question comes up continually, how are our churches in cities where the character of the population has changed, as the beds of swiftly flowing rivers change under the swing of strong and varying currents, to be sustained, when left alone where the tenement of the artisan or the laborer has taken the place of the rich man's mansion.

Parish endowments, generally speaking, are not desirable. They make men dependent and call out their latent selfishness. But in the case of these changed city Churches they seem to me indispensable. Churchmen are alive on this subject in Philadelphia, a city where there is more interest in such things than in our cities generally, and where some of their down-town churches have already secured large endowments.

This Diocese is notable, small as its territory is, for the number and contiguity of its large and growing manufacturing cities. These are filling up with a population which is to become, through the influence of religion and morality, the safeguard of liberty and law—or else, in their absence, a menace and terror. I care, I confess, little for what seem to me, at times, the vagaries of what is called Christian Socialism; but I do believe that our people are selfishly negligent of a great and primary duty and obligation. There are plenty of men generous or ambitious, or both, who will endow our colleges where the sons of the rich or the well-to-do are educated. Who will endow the Church among the poor in our cities? No grander object of charity makes its appeal to our wealthy laity to-day than this one.

I have received the following from the Secretary of the General Convention, and now lay it before you for your action.

The General Convention

OF THE

THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

To the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese of Newark.

RIGHT REVEREND SIR:

In compliance with the requirements of Title III., Canon 1, Section iii., of the Digest, I would hereby give particular notice that the following alterations of the Constitution of the Church are proposed: to wit, those comprised in the two resolutions subjoined, said resolutions having been constitutionally adopted by a General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church. held in the city of Baltimore, Maryland, in October A.D. 1892, to wit:

First.—It was by concurrent action of the two Houses of the Convention (vide Journal pages 338, 118.)

Resolved, That Article 8 of the Constitution be amended by striking out the clause "No alteration, etc.," and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "No alteration or addition shall be made in the Book of Common Prayer or other Offices of the Church, or the Articles of Religion, unless the same shall be first proposed in one General Convention, by the vote of a majority of the whole number of Bishops entitled to seats in the House of Bishops, and by the vote of a majority of all the Dioceses entitled to representation in the House of Deputies, and by a resolve of the General Convention made known to the Convention of every Diocese, and adopted at the subsequent General Convention in the same manner in which it was proposed."

so that the Article as thus amended shall read as follows:

ARTICLE 8.

A Book of Common Prayer, Administration of the Sacraments and other Rites and Ceremonies of the Church, Articles of Religion, and a Form and Manner of Making, Ordaining and Consecrating Bishops, Priests, and Deacons, when established by this or a future General Convention, shall be used in the Protestant Episcopal Church in those Dioceses which shall have adopted this Constitution. No alteration or addition shall be made in the Book of Common Prayer or other Offices of the Church, or the Articles of Religion, unless the same shall be first proposed in one General Convention, by the vote of a majority of the whole number of Bishops entitled to seats in the House of Bishops, and by the vote of a majority of all the Dioceses entitled to representation in the House of Deputies, and by a resolve of the General Convention made known to the Convention of every Diocese, and adopted at the subsequent General Convention in the same manner in which it was proposed; Provided, however, that the General Convention shall have power from time to time to amend the Lectionary; but no act for this purpose shall be valid which is not voted for by a majority of the whole number of Bishops entitled to seats in the House of Bishops, and by a majority of all the Dioceses entitled to representation in the House of Deputies.

Second.—It was by concurrent action of the two Houses of the Convention (vide Journal pages 394, 395, 152.)

Resolved, That the following changes be made in the Constitution and that the proposed changes be made known to the several Diocesan Conventions in order that they may be adopted in the ensuing General Convention, in accordance with provisions of Article 9 of the Constitution:

Strike out the words "Assistant Bishop" wherever they occur, and insert in their place the words "Bishop Coadjutor."

In Testimony Whereof, I have this day hereunto affixed my name.

CHAS. L. HUTCHINS,

Secretary of the House of Deputies.

CONCORD, MASSACHUSETTS,

February 14, A. D. 1894.

Four of our Bishops have died within the Conventional year, the Right Reverend ALEXANDER GREGG, of Texas; the Right Reverend THEODORE B. LYMAN, of North Carolina; the Right Reverend JOHN A. PADDOCK, of Olympia; and the Right Reverend HORATIO SOUTHGATE, once Missionary Bishop of Constantinople, but for many years retired. With the first three I had some personal acquaintance, enough to bear witness to their high character and self-denying work. With the last I had not exchanged a word for many years. Indeed Bishop SOUTHGATE seemed to have dropped out of sight of his contemporaries. He was a man of learning and of more than average natural ability.

Two of our Diocesan Clergy have died within the same time, the Rev. JOHN B. COLHOUN, M. D., at Rutherford, on the sixth of last November, and the Rev. DANIEL I. EDWARDS, on the twenty-ninth of the same month, in Ohio. Few of you probably knew either of these Presbyters, only the last of whom ever did any pastoral work in this Diocese, and he but for a short time. Both were faithful men and deserve respectful and honorable mention.

Two sentences of deposition were pronounced in the course of the year. On Thursday, November 9th, 1893, WILLIAMS HOWLAND, Presbyter, was, at his own request, deposed by me in Grace Church, Orange, in the presence of the Rev. ANTHONY SCHUYLER, D.D., and of the Rev. ALEXANDER MANN, Presbyters. This act of discipline was under the provisions of Title II, Canon 5, Section i, of the General Digest.

On Saturday, January 6th, 1894, GEORGE H.

YARNALL, Presbyter, was, at his own request, deposed by me in Grace Church, Newark, in the presence of the Rev. GEORGE M. CHRISTIAN, D.D., and of the Rev. JOHN KELLER, Presbyters. This act of discipline was under the provisions of Title II, Canon 5, Section i, of the General Digest.

My custom has been, as you know, to make each Annual Address a record of our Diocesan progress or hindrances, and this will probably continue to the end; for if there are two convictions which with more than the usual tenacity are rooted in my mind, they are these: that as the only possible expression of Christian Unity is that which inheres in the Body Corporate, the Church, so a true interest in the success of the parish means of necessity an equal interest in that of the Diocese and the Church at large. For his own portion of the field, that which is his assigned sphere of labor, the parish priest has a responsibility which is all the more exacting, because no one can share it with him. But as you and I, brethren of the clergy, are what we are, i. e. priests, only as He by His Spirit works in us and by us, Who is Himself the One Great High Priest and Bishop of souls, and Whose Body is the Church and His field the world, our interest in the diocese and in the whole Church is of necessity a common interest, shared in by the laity who are themselves priests unto God, members one of another, sharing in the rejoicing and equally in the suffering of the whole Body.

The last two or three years may be characterized as a building epoch in the diocese. Two of our churches, as you know, were destroyed last year by fire. The Church at Bloomfield is rebuilt on a new and better site than before, of stone instead of wood, and is now large enough to provide effectually for its work in the future. I cannot speak too highly of the indomitable energy of the Rector or of the faithful co-operation of his laity.

The congregation at Summit, whose Church was destroyed last year, worships in its new parish building. Here, too, another and better site has been secured. The new church promises to be in size, ecclesiastical style, and convenience, all that can be desired. It is to be begun this summer, and will, so our friends think, require a year for its completion. I cannot let Summit pass without referring with pleasure to the large and conspicuously situated piece of ground which has been purchased. It is irregular in shape and averages about four hundred feet in length by one hundred and sixty-five in breadth. I earnestly hope that not a foot of it will be parted with. Our ancestors well understood the sound policy from even a worldly point of view of giving to God's House the dignity of aloneness secured by a wide environment of land.

The new St. Andrew's Church, in South Orange, was opened formally by me on the 29th of November last. Only the nave is completed as yet. Transepts and choir are to be added when needed. Everything promises well in this new enterprise, which, humanly speaking, is sure to strengthen with the steadily growing population of the neighborhood.

The new parish of St. Thomas, in Newark, has completed a small frame structure seating perhaps two hundred and fifty people, which is now in use for Divine service. Newark is so rapidly approaching East Orange with radii of population, which widen out continually until they join together, that the future of the churches on the outskirts is mainly a question of wise and unselfish devotion on the part of those who are responsible for their existence and conduct.

The new St. John's Church, in Passaic, removed to another, and, as the Vestry think, a better location, is being constructed rapidly. Although this picturesque structure is built solidly of stone and will seat between four and five hundred people, its cost owing to the stress of the times, will be comparatively moderate.

Another and important enterprise is that of the new St. Paul's Church in Paterson, which, the old property having been condemned, paid for, and torn down—is to be rebuilt in the new and most rapidly improving portion of the town, where the presence of the Church is absolutely necessary.

On a former occasion I alluded with expressions of satisfaction to the large number of parishes in the diocese which were in possession of comfortable rectories, reminding my friends of the laity especially, that these clergy-houses are not luxuries but endowments in the best sense of the word. Let me now ask your attention to another indication of increasing life and interest which tells the story of growing parochial activities. I mean the Parish House.

There were few gathering places provided forty years ago for the exercise of an activity which could scarcely be said to exist. The outcome of the Hanoverian epoch was certainly depressing. Church life like its architecture was low-browed. The Wednesday and Friday evening lecture or prayer-meeting in addition to the Sunday services fulfilled the rubrical and liturgical obedience exacted or rendered in that day; and the female society for visiting the poor was the average expression of its charity. It was a day however when piety was deep and strong, if narrow. People were more easily moved on their religious side then than they are now. Perhaps one reason why we have more agencies at work to-day than our fathers had then, is that we need them more. In our time an active priest and zealous people are almost lost without the parish house. In our eighty-nine or ninety parishes and missions, there are already twenty-six of these gathering places for work, twenty of them the outgrowth of the last ten years. In this enumeration I do not include separate or distinct chapels for occasional worship within or without the church proper, but simply Parish Houses, and of these, four have been opened within the year. The building at Montclair is as solid and commodious in its way as the church itself and admirable in every respect. Another is at Bloomfield and another at Summit, all of stone, while that attached to the Church of the Redeemer, Morristown, which I had the pleasure of opening with a service of benediction in February last, although simple and inexpensive in construction, is remarkably well arranged and convenient, and had this charm for me that it was a memorial, one more useful far than a mural tablet or plate of brass, the memorial of a lady who amongst many other benefactions which will cause her to be remembered, endowed two beds in perpetuity for our Hospital of St. Barnabas.

The two hospitals are doing their beneficent work, but with increased expenditure which is the corollary of increased efficiency; and unless our people mean to let them gradually die out, they must be more generally and effectively sustained by annual gifts or endowments or both. These institutions, besides the work of absolute charity which they do, and no charity could be more absolute, for it is dispensed with all that trained skill can effect, without reference to social condition or religious belief or unbelief, give influence and prestige to the Church which sustains them in a way which few people consider or are aware of. Our people of the Diocese of Newark are abundantly able to place these institutions, if they will to do so, high on the rock above the water floods. To the medical staff of both, my tribute is justly due for skill, and interest shown in the great and growing reputation as well as the success of the hospitals. In St. Barnabas', through the efforts of Dr. ARCHIBALD MERCER, an operating room has been constructed, which, as I am assured, will bear comparison with any for neatness and convenience and, in a word, perfect adaptedness to its purpose. Let me here once more bear witness to the courage and undaunted fidelity of the women who work unweariedly from year to year, and to whom more than to any one else, these hospitals owe their continued and useful existence. These institutions will amply repay a visit made to them by any one interested in the work of Christian charity, and I can assure all who may accept this invitation now made, that they will receive cordial and courteous welcome from the Sisters or others who may be in charge.

For the work done in the other charitable institutions of the Diocese, I refer all who are interested in their success to the reports of these charities published in brief as an appendix to the Journal. And I would here express the hope that in turning over the pages of our Convention Journal, no Churchman will overlook these reports which convey in substance what has been accomplished in the way of charitable work outside of parochial organizations.

Before closing this portion of my address, I will say a word on a subject which has only once or twice engaged your attention during fourteen years, but which would seem to deserve more careful consideration than it has received. I refer to the admission of unemployed clergy to ex-officio membership in this Convention, under a certain clause of Article 4 of the Constitution of the Diocese which reads as follows: "nor shall this right (of ex-officio membership) be forfeited when any such Presbyter, after having been for five years connected with the Diocese, shall by reason of age or infirmity, be disabled from the performance of the active duties of his ministry."

Of course in the case provided for, the right of the Presbyter claiming a seat ex-officio, not being apparent upon its face, but being dependent upon testimony, the question of right must be decided by the house itself. It has been thought by some among us that the language of the article is not clear, and that it may be interpreted to mean that a presbyter, still canonically resident but without title, who had been years before connected as Rector with a parish which he had resigned for some other cause than ill health or infirmity, may apply at any time for admission ex-officio and be received.

But is the clause really susceptible of such interpretation? Can a right be said to be forfeited which is not possessed, or, which is more to the point, can a right once possessed and then forfeited be properly spoken of as a right still in possession? On the other hand it may be said that the ex-officio membership is not absolutely forfeited by a canonically resident clergyman who gives up his charge, but is in abeyance, to be resumed at any time when he becomes a rector or missionary. At all events, the question ought not to remain open. Some dioceses put no restrictions of any kind on right of the clergy to ex-officio membership, except that involved in the loss of a good name; but with us it is different, and I think most of us agree that at least active work for the Church should be exacted in all cases as a qualification, the cases of sickness and infirmity excepted.

DIOCESAN MISSIONS.

The general mission work has progressed favorably during the year where such progress was possible, which means simply that there are one or two places in the Diocese in which missions were formed years ago, and where the conditions prevailing have been such as either to neutralize or greatly impede their advancement, I do not suppose that this diocese is peculiar in this respect. On the contrary, I am confident that we are exceptionally favored in the small number of such missionary parishes and stations.

The work generally, as I have said, is prospering. In the Archdeaconry of Jersey City, the missionary parish at Bayonne has, within a few years, bought a fine piece of land in the best and most improving part of the town, built a church which cost seven thousand dollars, and owes at this time not more than thirty-five hundred dollars. The congregations are good and increasing, and there are one hundred and fifty communicants.

The mission chapel at Lafayette is not Diocesan, but was originated by and remains under the care of the rector of St. Mark's Church, Jersey City. It has a congregation and Sunday school which fill the building. Fifteen of its people were confirmed by me on Easter day.

The Church of the Ascension, Jersey City Heights, once really forlorn in the desolateness of its outlook, is now a bright and cheery place; has a large congregation and more than one hundred and sixty communicants. It paid on old debts last year nearly one thousand dollars besides current expenses, yet there is hardly one person of means in the congregation.

The Mission of St. Luke's, Paterson, is doing remarkably well under its Lay Reader, whose work is supervised by the Rector of St. Paul's Church. The congregation worshipping in its neat but small chapel are all working people. Forty-four persons belonging to this mission were confirmed in the past year.

I only make particular reference in this part of my address to those mission points where there is something especial to speak of. The rest are maintaining themselves and something more, perhaps.

It had always been matter of regret that Stanhope had no outlying station to stimulate the courage and ambition of a missionary; for Stanhope, with its brave little flock, refused to be set aside when some, perhaps, judged that it should be.

The hoped-for opportunity has presented itself on Lake Hopatcong, where we have a large summer congregation at Mount Arlington, and a smaller one at the Landing. I have called these mission points, St. Peter's and St. Andrew's. Mount Arlington Mission pays its own expenses for the summer. The Rev. Mr. PICKSLAY, of Dover, has charge of these new stations as well as the oversight of Stanhope. I cannot praise too highly his self-denying interest in and devotion to the work. Two or three weeks ago I confirmed a class of six in Stanhope, and on a Thursday morning celebrated there, administering the Holy Communion to twenty devout members of the Church. These all came out, leaving their household work to do so. I must confess that their interest appealed to me, and I wished that, like the great Bishop of Constantinople, I could go golden-tongued about the diocese, to tell the story of these scattered little flocks of the Good Shepherd to those whose hearts point the way, and who need not to learn painfully the lesson that the strong should care for and protect the weak.

St. Peter's Mission Church, Washington, has just parted with its pastor, who has done so much in the past three years to unite and consolidate it, and is now under the charge of his brother, the Rev. JOHN W. McCLEARY. This Mission has grown strong even in these hard times. The people composing the congregation are all poor, but they work together cordially and take a warm interest in their unique and attractive church and its dignified and devout services. There are nearly eighty communicants here, who are not solely interested in themselves or absorbed in their own local interests. Last year a young women's guild belonging to the mission furnished a large amount of useful and attractive work for a branch of our Woman's Auxiliary. In a word, the mission fully justifies all that you have done in past years to make its continued existence possible.

Trinity Mission, Arlington, has an entirely united people. The remaining indebtedness on the property having been paid off, it is free from debt, and the grounds about the building have been graded and made attractive.

Early in October a mission was established at Maplewood, a small but growing place about two miles on the rail road west of South Orange, by the Rev. Mr. BREWSTER. A piece of ground has since been given for the erection of a church building, and as those interested preferred an independent organization, it has, with the consent of Mr. BREWSTER, become an organized mission of the Diocese, under the name of St. George. The Rev. Mr. BICKER conducts the services.

For other and more detailed accounts of mission work, I refer you to the reports of the Archdeacons.

Affectionately your Bishop,

THOMAS A. STARKEY.

Reports.

I have received the following reports from the Reverend, the Archdeacons of the two Archdeaconries:

ARCHDEACONRY OF NEWARK.

To the Right Rev. Thomas A. Starkey, D.D., Bishop of Newark:

A review of the missionary work of the past year in the Archdeaconry of Newark presents much that is encouraging. The missions generally are in a satisfactory condition. Some discouragements, of course, have been encountered, but in spite of all, substantial progress has been made.

It would seem as if the recent business depression had resulted favorably for Church work. Possibly the enforced idleness of such large numbers of our people has given them more time to attend to their church duties. In almost every case our missionaries report that the financial condition of their missions is fully up to the average, if not beyond it. This simply means that there has been a greater degree of self denial exercised than heretofore, and that adversity is more conducive to spiritual growth than prosperity.

Two changes in our working forces have been made during the past year. The Rev. Charles Douglas, for more than twenty years our faithful Missionary at Belvidere and Knowlton, has removed to the other Archdeaconry. He has been succeeded by the Rev. George H.

Young. It has been a trying year for these two Missions; there is little or no growth in these old towns and the work is chiefly a strengthening of the things that remain. Still it is work that must be done, and withal it is profitable work. Those who grow up in the Church in those places are not lost to the Church because they move away.

Some time ago, about one-half of the entire number of the communicants of St. James' Church, Knowlton, migrated to the West in the same year. It can easily be imagined what a severe blow this was to that venerable Parish, and how discouraging to the Missionary, but we trust there was no loss to the whole state of Christ's Church militant, and to-day the old Parish has recovered and is about as strong as before that exodus. There can be no better way of helping on the growth of the Church in what is familiarly known as the domestic field than by the sustentation of our country missions. The cry that is not infrequently heard, "Shut up that straggling mission, what is the use of trying to keep it alive," is the sheerest treason to all kinds of missionary work, and evinces the utter lack of the true missionary spirit.

The other change referred to has been in connection with St. Peter's Mission, Washington. The Rev. J. A. McCleary, after three years of faithful service, has resigned and been succeeded by his brother, the Rev. J. W. McCleary.

Washington is a thriving town and the growth of the Church has been in an equal, if not greater, proportion, to the growth of the town. It is but a few years since this Mission was established. Services were first held in an unattractive and inconvenient rented room; now the Mission owns a handsome church and parish room, a commodious brick Rectory and ample grounds comprising in all an extremely valuable property. But above all, some eighty communicants have been added to the Church.

It is much to be regretted that still another change is in prospect. The Rev. C. H. Beers, who, for the past eighteen months, has been Rector of St. Luke's Church, Phillipsburgh, will, on June 1, resign that cure and enter on another field of labor in New York. The work in Phillipsburgh has prospered under Mr. Beer's charge. The number of communicants has considerably increased. But circumstances, over which the Rector has no control, tend to render the situation somewhat trying for the immediate future.

St. Luke's is about to lose its most prominent and liberal family—a family chiefly responsible for its existence and maintenance as a parish. I refer to the family of Mr. J. C. Kent, who has been for many years a delegate to this Convention. His removal from Phillipsburgh will be a severe blow to the parish, but it is to be hoped that those who remain may feel a greater responsibility in sustaining the work and that eventually good may result from seeming evil. An additional appropriation for the coming year will be an imperative necessity.

Perhaps the most encouraging report of all comes from the Missionary in charge of Stanhope and parts adjacent. This Mission is under the care of the Rev. W. M. Pickslay, Rector of St. John's, Dover. During a portion of the past year he has had the assistance of two Lay Readers—one maintaining the services at Stanhope and the other occupying two points on Lake Hopatcong. As the Missionary says in his report, "The work has not only been kept up but a steady advance has been made—the faithful are growing in knowledge and grace; the young are being instructed; interest is being roused in strangers, and new members are being added to the Church. The attendance at the services in Stanhope for the past year has shown a decided improvement. In spite of many obstacles the Mission does not fail—the people are singularly grateful and responsive, bravely doing all in their power for the spread of Christ's Kingdom in their midst. This Mission should encourage the Diocese to give itself more heartily to the leading duty in its commission; the preaching of the Gospel within our own borders; working in the vineyard where Christ has placed us; doing something of the work He has given us to do; ministering, at least less grudgingly to those lying at our gate. If we believe that this Church has a true mission to the people of this land, then is not the work plainly before us in our own field? Did our Master order us to wait for invitations and pledges of support before we set out to preach the Gospel? Is He not saying, 'Go ye and preach the Gospel' throughout the Diocese of Newark as well as throughout the world?"

During the summer months of 1892-3 we have had exclusive use of the stone chapel on the grounds of the Hotel Breslin, Lake Hopatcong, and regular services have been maintained there, the expense of which has been fully met by the contributions of the summer residents.

Last season a considerable sum, about $500, was given, part of which was expended in fitting up the interior of the chapel in a more churchly manner, and the balance in securing the services of various prominent clergymen. Evening services were also held at the Forrest Club House on the opposite site of the lake.

Not content with ministering merely to summer guests, permanent missions have been opened during the past winter at Mt. Arlington and at Hopatcong Landing. At the former place morning service and Sunday-school were undertaken and evening service at the latter. All this has been done through the untiring efforts of the Rev. Mr. Pickslay, to whom all the credit is due. It should not be forgotten that the entire cost of this new work has been covered by the generous offerings of certain gentlemen, summer residents at Mount Arlington, who are interested in the work of the Church in that neighborhood.

for any new mission stations throughout this missionary district, but I do see a great field for work, and abundant opportunity to preach the gospel.

A live man who would go throughout the length and breadth of our northern counties, spend a Sunday now and then with our lonely and perhaps discouraged missionaries, then come to some of our highly respectable but not over-generous wealthy parishes and tell them about the work, its needs and its results, would do more for the cause of missions in this Diocese than we have any idea of. And it can be done. It simply rests with the churchmen of the Diocese to open their hearts and their pockets in order to effect its accomplishments. And further, such work would more than pay for itself in the long run by the increase of offerings which it would produce. All that is needed to set it in operation would be for a few of our interested laymen to guarantee a possible deficiency resulting from the added expense. And when this point has been reached, let us take our whole missionary system and pull it up by the roots for fear of its going to seed; eradicate the all too-prevailing tone of parochialism; give your Archdeacon a corps of men who can be moved from place to place by a force something less than that of a hundred-ton locomotive, and let us see to it that he keeps them on the move, and not let them spend their whole time in a village that can be walked over in half an hour. If the average business concern covered no more territory with its agents, than we do with our missionaries, it would soon be left far behind in the competition of life.

We need no new canons; what we want is to unlimber what we have, and get them into action. We are slow to adapt the splendid machinery of our Church to the peculiar needs of the work. We send an inexperienced man (for perhaps he is the only one that can be found willing to go) to a certain mission, with the conviction that the chances are about even whether he will run it into the ground or build it up. If he is fairly successful he is soon called away to a better place; if he is not in demand he is more likely to stay and cripple the work.

The very isolation of our workers tends to lessen their successes and aggravate their mistakes. A man, that may make an utter failure in one phase of the work, might be fairly successful in some other, if his faculty for work could be more closely observed and his motions directed. If our efforts at Church extension are to amount to anything, what we need is a more flexible line of skirmishers operating as a unit under one leader; and not here and there a solitary soldier shut up in a block house endeavoring to defend his own little patch of territory.

Respectfully submitted,

MILLIDGE WALKER,
Archdeacon of Newark.

THE ARCHDEACONRY OF JERSEY CITY.

To the Right Reverend Thomas A. Starkey, D.D., Bishop of Newark:

It is with deep thanksgiving that the Archdeacon reports much of progress, and much of hope and encouragement in the mission work of this Archdeaconry.

St. John's Church, Bayonne, though a parish, because of exceptional and imperative conditions is sufficiently connected with the Board of Missions to justify mention in this report. Three years ago, the Missionary in charge, the Rev. O. Valentine, because of pressing needs was compelled to borrow $7000 on bond and mortgage. By careful and successful management he has been able to reduce this to $5000. At a recent meeting of the Standing Committee, permission was given to cancel the former mortgage of $7000 and to execute a new one for $5000. The burden of debt is thus immensely relieved, and complete freedom from it will soon be.

The church property is being put in more perfect condition. The building is to be painted, the church lot improved, and a fence erected. The bread cast upon those waters is returning after these many days. There have been twenty-five baptisms and fifteen burials. The Bishop has not yet made his visitation.

The Church of the Ascension, Jersey City Heights, has done all it was asked to do a year ago and a great deal more.

The Archdeacon then promised to raise $500 from friends without the mission, if the people within the mission would raise another $500; the whole $1000 to be applied to the reduction of the mortgage indebtedness of $5000. Long before he succeeded in his endeavor the people of the mission had their amount securely in hand. Encouraged by this, the Missionary, the Rev. James Cameron, promised to furnish $200, if the people would raise an additional $300, the total amount, $500, to be applied to the reduction of the debt upon the rectory. This too has been done. Thus in a year of terrible financial depression, among a people who feel such depression more quickly and more keenly than most people, for they all earn their daily bread by daily toil, the sum of $1500 has been applied to the reduction of the heavy indebtedness upon the mission property. ♦

The Archdeacon is deeply indebted to the Bishop of the Diocese, the Rev. Dr. Holley, the Rev. Dr. Stoddard, the Rev. Alexander Mann, the Rev. Mr. Bennitt, the Rev. Mr. Nickerson, and Messrs. Smith D. Mackey, Henry Hayes, E. H. Dougherty, Geo. S. Wylie, and St. Paul's Church, Hoboken, for generous sums generously given to this purpose. The Archdeacon has also been able to furnish this Mission with a complete and handsome set of chancel furniture. It was made by Geissler, is of solid oak, is beautifully constructed, and consists of Altar with pace, Bishop's chair, Rector's chair, two clergy stalls, and prayer desks, and chancel rail. He is indebted for this handsome addition to the church's appointments to the Ladies of the Newark Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary, the Bishop of the Diocese and others. This marks but one side of the good work done in this Mission. The other is the spiritual side, and is partly revealed in the report made. There have been twenty-three baptisms, twenty have been confirmed; there have been twenty burials and six marriages. The Mission Church of the Ascension is now abundantly justifying all that has been done for it in the past. Much praise is due the faithful Missionary and his equally faithful people.

Trinity Mission, Hillsdale, is also feeling the stringency of the times. Yet, under the leadership of the Rev. Henry M. Ladd, of Norwood, substantial gains have been made in the past year. The people are still worshipping in the chapel. The time has not yet come when a church building can be erected. It will come. The village is growing. It must grow. Those who come to it are buying or building their own houses. This insures a fixed population.

One hundred souls are connected with the Mission. There are fifty-seven children in the Sunday School. There are twenty-eight communicants. There have been two confirmed and two baptized. The offerings have been $940.

St. Luke's Mission, Paterson, under the general charge of the Rev. Mr. Nickerson of St. Paul's, Paterson, but under the immediate charge of Mr. Perrine, is doing astonishingly well. No portion of the state has been more seriously affected by the hard times than the city of Paterson, and no portion of the city than that ministered to by this Mission. The most of the people are out of work. Yet, so successfully has the work been prosecuted that forty-four have been confirmed since the last report of a year ago. But few of our parishes can present such a record as this. The offerings have been $710.77. There have been eighteen baptisms, six burials and two marriages. The number of communicants last reported thirty-four, the present number eighty-four.

St. Agnes' Mission, Lafayette, has outgrown the limits of a year ago. An extension has been added to the building to accommodate the increasing numbers of the rapidly growing Sunday School. There are now eighty scholars. The services are very well attended. There have been thirty baptized and fifteen confirmed. The mission is entirely supported by St. Mark's Church, Jersey City, the Rector of which, the Rev. F. E. Mortimer, has charge of the work.

The Mission of the Good Shepherd, Fort Lee, is still under the charge of the Rev. Walter M. Sherwood, of St. James' Church, Ridgefield, with the Rev. A. L. Byron-Curtis, as assistant. A railroad running north from Union Hill, which has been in process of construction for some time, is now completed and in operation. This gives much more rapid transit, and is bound to affect for good the entire section. Two hundred and fifty souls are connected with this Mission. There have been ten baptisms, six confirmed, eight buried and six couples married. The Sunday School numbers one hundred and thirty. The offerings have been $526.

All Saints' Mission, Leonia, is under the same clergy as the Mission of the Good Shepherd. This is the newest of the missions of the Archdeaconry, and is giving great promise. Seventy-five souls have been gathered to it. There are thirty-four communicants. There are thirty-two in the Sunday School. Since the 1st of January, the offerings have been $172. The services are held at present in a hired hall. This is both expensive and inconvenient. It is believed that a lot will be given when the time comes to build. The portion of our Diocese ministered to by these two missions will show remarkable development in the near future. A vigilant eye should be kept on opening opportunities, and the Bishop should be so supported financially as to be able to meet them, and improve them when they offer.

The Rev. F. J. Clayton, of Rutherford, still sees to the care of St. Thomas' Mission, Lyndhurst. The time is near at hand when the Missionary Board must aid in giving fuller service to this place than Mr. Clayton can possibly give it.

The Mission of the Epiphany, Allendale, is still doing the quiet and faithful work which has always characterized it. The warden and lay reader, Mr. D. A. Smith, is entitled to all praise for his devotion during so many years.

The Mission at Nordhoff is supported entirely by St. Paul's Church, Englewood. The reports of its work will be embraced with those of the mother parish.

The future of the Missions of this Archdeaconry is bright with promise. No portion of the Diocese is growing so rapidly as this portion. It is truly missionary ground. The seed sown now will infallibly bring forth in due season some thirty fold, some sixty, and some a hundred.

Very sincerely yours,

W. R. JENVEY.

The Mission has been regularly served, by the Rev. C. H. S. Hartman, of the Diocese of New York, during the past year, with consent of the Bishop; but because of his inability to give needed time and attention to the interests of the Mission, Mr. Hartman has felt obliged to discontinue his services, and the Mission is again seeking for a new incumbent. We do not however despair but are hopeful of better things to come. The Ladies' Needle Work Guild has proved a faithful auxiliary in the work of the Mission and has contributed largely to its support.

Owing to the ill health of the Rector, there was no confirmation in this Parish the present year. The Bishop expects to make a visitation in the autumn. The mortgage of $7000 on the church property has been replaced by one of $5000. This has reduced our monthly assessments to the Building Association which holds the mortgage and shows a reduction of the Church mortgage in three years of $2000. The Church grounds have been graded and improved, and a neat iron fence is about to be erected around the property. The people of this Mission Parish have done nobly and deserve every praise and commendation for their faithfulness.

During the past year a lot in the rear of the Church property and adjoining the same has been purchased and added to the cemetery, making a most desirable addition for burial purposes. It has been laid out in lots which the Vestry are now offering for sale. It is hoped to realize sufficient from the sale of these lots to build a parish house, add a recess chancel to the Church, and leave a balance as a partial endowment of the Parish. The lots are thrown open to all purchasers, whether living in Belleville or elsewhere.

On Easter the church was the recipient of an altar and chancel furniture of oak, to take the place of the very ordinary chancel appointments that we had formerly. For these we are largely indebted to the kindness and liberality of the Woman's Auxiliary in the Diocese, which is so helpful to missions and poor churches. Our thanks go out to all who have helped us in making our church bright and comely.

A large and substantial Parish house has been built during the past year, at a cost of about $21,000, less than $1,900 of which remains to be raised. The architect was Mr. William Halsey Wood, of Newark, N. J., and the building is most satisfactory, meeting admirably the various uses for which it was designed, namely, those of a chapel, of a Sunday-school building and of a house for Parish work. It is of stone and corresponds with the church, with which it is connected by a cloister. On the ground floor are a spacious room (which can be utilized as a gymnasium), a commodious kitchen and a large work room, besides lavatories. The floor above can all be thrown into a room capable of seating, with the gallery, 400, for Sunday-school purposes, or it can be divided by sliding sashes into a main central room, for chapel use, with side rooms which can be used for Bible classes, or for work rooms. There is also a room for the Sunday-school library.

The amount reported as paid out on the Parish Building Fund represents money that was on hand in addition to what was contributed during the year for this object. The building was begun last summer, and the opening service was held on Tuesday, April 10, 1894.

The total valuation of the property, of the church, Parish house and land is about $110,000.

During the past year the convenient and tasteful Sunday-school building, so much needed, has been erected, from funds which had been contributed, for the most part, during the incumbency of the previous pastor. It has also, in many ways, served the purpose of a Parish House, and has been found most admirably adapted for the weekly meetings of the various Guilds and societies. In addition to this, both the Church and Sunday-school building have been furnished with steam heating apparatus, at a cost of over $600, the greater part of which has already been paid. These conveniences, with the new organ, which has also been added during the past year, have contributed greatly to the comfort and enjoyment of all, and the evidences of growth and enthusiastic service are most encouraging.

During the past year the Parish Church was improved by the laying of a fine mosaic pavement in the Chancel, and the replacing of the wooden Altar rail by one of bronze. The Sanctuary pavement and rail are in memory of a deceased parishioner. On November 7, 1893, the Bishop of the Diocese dedicated a side chapel for weekday services.

Regular monthly celebrations of the Eucharist, at the Mission Chapel, were begun October 15, 1893.

February 20, 1894 was observed as the 65th anniversary of the consecration of the Parish Church, the Bishop of the Diocese and some of the former Clergy of this Parish took part in the services with the present staff of Clergy and a goodly number of Parishioners, past and present.

Many gifts to the Church and Chapels have been received, some of them memorials.

In spite of the depression of the past year the Parish has made advances, both spiritual and material, due, in part, to the enlargement of its working force by the addition of two assistant Clergy, in part also to the increased efforts of those who have co-operated with the Clergy in their labors.

At Easter two stained-glass windows representing the "Crucifixion" and the "Ascension" were presented to the Church. They are placed over the Altar.

The income has fallen off from that of the previous year. It could not have been otherwise, for the Parish is largely made up of people whose moderate incomes depend upon manufacturing operations and these have been greatly depressed for many months. The expenditures reported exceed the receipts because money contributed and reported last year was expended this year,

During the past year the site of St. Paul's Church was acquired by condemnation proceedings for a portion of a plot for a new City Hall; $52,500 was received for the land. For more than six months the services have been held in the Sunday-school room. Several years ago the Parish bought ground in the best part of the city, bounded on three sides by streets of sufficient size for a church, Parish building, and rectory. A large one-story school house, built in the most substantial manner of Pompton granite, has been erected, and it is hoped that the Parish will occupy it early in June. Plans have been accepted for a new church, on which work will probably be begun during the summer.

The present Rector took charge last May, but did not move into the Rectory until the middle of September. The Parish has suffered greatly from the depressed state of trade, as this is mainly composed of silk weavers and mechanics who for the most part have been idle at least the past nine months; yet the offerings for nearly all objects have been larger than the year before. The guilds and Sunday-school have aided the Rector in every way, and it is due to them that the Parish has been able to make the present good showing. The Rector has reported a smaller number of communicants than the year previous, as very many whose names were on the record could not be found.

but this Parish has been so irregularly served in a ministerial way, it is impossible to give a full statement of all particulars. The future of this work is brighter than ever, and hereafter a Rector's oversight shall be exercised.

At the same time the Parish House Fund has been augmented by nearly $1,100, and now amounts to $2,050.58. In October, 1893, with the help of the Parochial Young Men's Guild, services were begun at Maplewood, a mile and a half from the Parish Church, on Sunday afternoons, the school house being rented for that purpose. This work has been successfully carried on, chiefly through the kindness of the Rev. H. K. Bicker, with the efficient co-operation of the Guild. The Rector desires to express his hearty thanks to Mr. Bicker, and also to Mr. H. H. Meeder, a parishioner licensed as a lay-reader, who has most faithfully assisted in this mission work. A lot having been given for this Mission by Mr. Louis Manley, of Maplewood, it has been organized on an independent basis, under the name of St. George's Mission, and will henceforth be reported separately.

To the Right Rev. Thomas A. Starkey, D.D.:

I took charge of the work of Trinity Mission, 43 East 21st St., Bayonne City, in October 1893. In this part of the city is a large mixed population for whom the Mission is intended; our prime object is to help them into a Christian life, especially the young, to teach, instruct and gradually draw them into the Church. We have many agencies in connection with the Mission, Sunday-school, Boys' Club, Girls' Friendly Society, Mothers' Meeting and Sewing school, with pleasant entertainments. So far the effort has been a success; results will come in the future. About 50 families or parts of families are touched by the Mission. I believe they appreciate our endeavor. The work is just such that it cannot very well be told. Regular services, 38.

HOUSEHOLD ACCOUNT.

The household expenses for provisions, wages, etc., have been $14,863.96, of which $11,262.56 has been paid from current receipts, and $3,601.40 is yet due to the various dealers who supply the Hospital. Receipts from all sources of actual income have been $13,035.32.

The following table of comparison with last year's work shows a slight increase of receipts from nearly every source, except from miscellaneous or individual contributions, which have fallen off nearly one-half.

ENDOWMENT FUND.

This account has been increased during the year by $3,000, received for the endowment of the "Frederick H.

Teese Memorial Bed," making the total amount now on hand, $20,100.

This Fund is invested, the interest therefrom only being used for current expenses.

LIABILITIES.

The Hospital owes $20,000 on bond and mortgage, $15,612.17 on discount notes, representing seven years' accumulation of deficiency in current expenses, and balance required in returning the Hayes legacy; also, $3,601.40, being unpaid balance of household bills for present year, a total of $39,213.57.

THE HOSPITAL PROPERTY.

An important change has been made by the reconstruction of the old Hospital building for occupation by the working staff of the Hospital, thereby giving additional room in the main building for the accommodation of private patients. This has proved to be a decided improvement; resulting in greater convenience for doing the work, additional comfort to the patients, and a marked increase of income from this part of the Hospital work.

Insurance upon the buildings has been increased to cover improvements, and to meet the requirements of full insurance.

The cost of the entire property, land, buildings, furniture, etc., to date, is a little over $90,000.

A. H. WARD,
Treasurer.

June 7, 1894.

NOTE.—A portion of the Wallace property building lots on South Tenth street remain unsold; but from their very desirable location, are increasing in value.

CHRIST HOSPITAL, JERSEY CITY.

The Council herewith submits to the Diocese, the friends of the Institution, and the public, the record of the past year in carrying on the work of Christ Hospital:

Patients treated in Wards and Private Rooms.....	566
Patients treated in Eye and Ear Department... ..	274
Patients treated in Dispensary.....	1,596
Total number of Patients cared for.....	2,436
Number of treatments in the Dispensary.....	3,521
In Eye and Ear Department.....	723
Total.....	4,244
Number of Patients paying full or partial board... ..	147
Number of Free Patients.....	419
Children treated in Daisy Ward.....	51

Of those occupying beds there were:

Episcopalians.....	85
Roman Catholics.....	203
All Denominations.....	278
Total.....	566

Comparing the previous year with this, we have the following increase in the work:

	1892.	1893.
Patients in Beds.....	507	566
Eye and Ear Department.....	249	274
Dispensary... ..	1,428	1,596
Total.....	2,184	2,436
Total increase.....		252

This increase of work has necessarily somewhat increased our expenditures, so that we find:

Current Expenses.....	$11,395 97
Interest on Bonded Debt.....	1,500 00

or a little more than a thousand dollars a month; and yet the Hospital shows that the cost of current expenses charged to those occupying beds has been only 92 cents a day for each person, and the charity work represents about three-quarters of the expenses of the Institution.

The raising of the funds required to carry on the charity work on so large a scale requires close attention and continual activity on the part of the Council and Hospital Guilds; but the past year of financial depression in the business world has given us deep anxiety. On the first of October it was found that subscriptions and donations had fallen behind so far that three thousand dollars were then needed for current expenses, with three months yet to be provided for before the end of year.

A united meeting of the Council, Medical Board, and Hospital Guilds was called, and special committees were appointed, and all became a Ways and Means Committee, and went forth with a mind to work, and, when the year ended, all but twelve hundred dollars had been raised, and of this amount pledges and donations enabled us to provide for the whole amount.

The Council desire especially to thank the workers and the public for their generous response to our appeal, not only in gifts of money but in donations through the Abercrombie Guild during Donation Week in November, whereby our store-rooms were filled beyond anything in former years; and we thank the teachers and children of the public schools for their noble gifts on the day before Thanksgiving.

The growing interest among all classes of persons shows an appreciation of the charity work of Christ Hospital, which is freely given to suffering humanity of every creed, nationality and color.

St. Luke's Guild seeks to gain annual subscribers to the charity fund, and it has raised over eighteen hundred dollars this year. Any subscriber of five dollars or more is a member of this Guild.

St. Mary's Guild labors to provide for the interest on the debt incurred in building the Hospital and in reducing the principal. It has raised fourteen hundred dollars during the year. It does this largely through Mite Boxes, which now number 432.

The Abercrombie Guild works for the general good of the Hospital in every way. They have carried to unusual success the work of sending out Hungry Bags for gifts to the Hospital in Donation Week, and the response has resulted in larger donations than have ever been received in the history of the Institution. The Guild also continues its labors in raising endowments for the permanent support of the Hospital. Last year the endowment of beds, through them, was reported to be thirty thousand dollars. It has been increased during the year, so that it has now reached thirty-six thousand dollars.

This amount is securely invested, and the interest is annually paid in for the current expenses of the Hospital.

The Medical Board has taken a great interest in all that pertains to their work, and the record of persons cured and successful operations performed speaks in the highest terms of their skill and faithfulness.

The Superintendent has wrought well in the difficult work of managing all the internal affairs of the Institution. The economy in expenditures; increasing revenue through the various channels open for its exercise; extended usefulness of the Hospital, and the good results accomplished in every department of the work, show the zeal and wisdom which direct it.

The Training School for Nurses continues its successful work. It now numbers five graduates, who have received the Diploma and the Medal of Christ Hospital, and ten Pupil Nurses. It cares first for the nursing in the Wards and Private Rooms of the Hospital, and then takes such cases of nursing in private families as it is able to do.

The Chaplain has been most faithful in his work during the year, having taken most of the services himself, being only occasionally assisted by others. His personal ministrations to the sick and interest in their welfare have been greatly appreciated by the suffering, and the Council feels indebted to the Chaplain for the spiritual life awakened among the inmates of the Hospital.

The Collector has given as much time to this work as he could take from other duties, and his collections have brought in twelve hundred dollars.

Christ Hospital closes its year with devout thankfulness to Almighty God for His continued care and watchfulness over all our efforts and oft wavering faith, which, after all, so often doubts and halts in its struggles to work for Christ and His suffering brethren. And yet God has never left us to work alone. He has been with us, and raised up a band of men, women and children, whose hearts God has touched. This band is consecrated to this work by a living activity for all its requirements. The Council could do but little were it not for its band of auxiliary workers, and no problem has yet arisen but what the united work of all, liberally responded to by a generous public, has helped to solve. We thank all who have aided us; and even in the midst of financial depression our stores are fuller, our revenue has been greater, our endowments have increased, the sick and suffering have been cared for and relieved in greater numbers, the influence of the Institution has been surely extending, and its friends have been becoming more numerous and more deeply interested in maintaining its Christlike work. For all this we thank God and take courage, and enter upon another year remembering only the words of Our Blessed Lord: "Inasmuch as ye did it unto one of the least of these, my brethren, ye did it unto me."

The total cost for land, building, and furnishing, has been about $62,000; on this there is a bonded debt of $30,000, on which we paid the past year $1,500 interest, being at the rate of 5 per cent. The floating debt amounts to about $4,900, made up of bills unpaid, $500, and balance loaned by friends of the Hospital. These figures are conclusive evidence that it becomes necessary by some means to increase the revenue of the Hospital. To this end I would refer to the various plans set forth by our Finance Committee for adoption by our friends.

A donation of $35 from St. Mary's Guild is hereby acknowledged, the same having been received too late to appear in foregoing report.

PRESIDENT—The Bishop of Newark.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE—The Rev. G. C. Houghton, M. A., Warden; the Rev. G. H. Moffett, M. A., Chaplain; Mrs. Alexander, Treasurer, Castle Point, Hoboken, N. J.; Mrs. W. M. Hughes, Secretary, Morristown, N. J.; the Rev. T. W. Nickerson, Jr., B. D.; A. J. Loomis, M. D.; Mrs. Edward H. Wright; Miss J. R. Olmstead.

RULES.

- i. St. Katharine's Home is intended to help unmarried girls who have been led astray for the first time, and to shelter them before and after motherhood.
- ii. Application must be made to the Chaplain, or to the Sister in charge, who will investigate each case.
- iii. Applicants must be recommended by trustworthy persons and must bring a certificate of good health from a physician in regular standing.
- iv. Each girl must sign a written promise to remain in the Home for a fixed length of time, to conform to the Rules of the house, and to perform such a share of the house and other work as may be assigned her.

REPORT

For the Year ending November 1st, 1893.

In our report this year of 1893, we are glad to say that the Home is in an excellent condition. Since the last meeting of the Advisory Board the Home has been painted and some necessary repairs made to the blinds, locks, etc., leaving everything in a good and satisfactory state.

The Needlework Guild has made a most generous contribution of work, and the other donations have been acceptable and large in number.

In Sister Cora's report she speaks of needing a plain wardrobe or closet for work. It is hoped that some one generously inclined will send one to the Home, or if that be impossible, make a contribution to the fund, which may be handed the Treasurer or the Sister. Common chairs are also wanted. Persons are most earnestly requested to send, if possible, orders for sewing and for laundry work. Those who have had work of the kind done at the Home say that it is very well done and that the prices are moderate.

Our financial report is a very good one, but we still continue our plea for a greater number of annual subscribers, so that we may know with certainty the amount of money upon which we have to depend during the year.

In writing this, the report of the fourth year's work of St. Katharine's Home, telling of the sheltering during the year of 19 girls, of the confirmations and baptisms which have taken place, of the patient striving of the Sisters and the Chaplain to lead these girls to holier and better lives, we wish it were possible to know a great deal more of the effects of this work than can be told us. The question is asked a great many times, "Is it really of any use for you women interested in St. Katharine's Home to work as some of you do to raise money for the Home?" "Is it worth while to provide a house to shelter these girls, for these good Sisters to live the lives of self-sacrifice that they do for them?" "When they leave the Home do they not drift into evil lives?" These questions are not asked always by unthinking persons; they come often from those who have thought deeply upon the subject, but have contented themselves with thinking and questioning, instead of coming to see what the work really is.

These questions I want to answer by giving some statistics. Since the Home was started four years ago we have had forty-six girls. 7 have married; 10 have returned to their homes; 8 have gone to service; 6 have been confirmed; 3 have entered into rest. Of this number 27 have been 18 years of age, or under; 3 fourteen; 6 fifteen. There are at present 9 in the House; 9 have been sent to other institutions; 6 have been dismissed as not coming under the rules of this Home, or were too bad to be retained. Sister Cora has a list of all these girls, and after a careful study of it, from her personal knowledge, there are four, only, of whom she knows nothing; there are fourteen that she knows are living good lives. Certainly in a work of this kind this is a wonderfully good record and justifies the existence of the Home. These statistics prove that St. Katharine's Home is worth working for and worth sacrificing for. We have said it every year in this annual report and I am not sure that we shall not continue saying it indefinitely: That if we stopped to think of what the lives of these girls would be without the shelter St. Katharine's gives them, we should be willing to make any sacrifice ourselves in order to carry on the work.

Probably no charitable institution has had greater difficulty in overcoming deeply rooted prejudice than St. Katharine's. Although the motives of those who started the work have not often been questioned, the methods have met with severe criticism.

In Sister Cora's report she tells of one of the girls who left the Home to be married, and going back to it as she would to her mother's home, during the temporary breaking up of her own. She remained at St. Katharine's for her confirmation and in a short time after she returned to her own home entered into life eternal. Sister Cora has told the story very touchingly, and in speaking of this girl in a private letter she says "I tell you this story, because it seems to me that the salvation of one girl even, is reason enough for this Home. Only one who had been constantly with this poor girl could know how deep and true her penitence was, penitence for the sin itself and not for the disgrace."

This story, as many of the stories of these girls are, is a pathetic one, and demonstrates that not only does the teaching of the Home show these poor souls to a better, purer and holier way of living, but also, and better than all, a holier way of dying. We say often "What would their lives be without the shelter which the Home gives them?" We can go farther, and say what would their death-beds be without the hope which they have learned in St. Katharine's?

Secretary.

WIDOWS' HOME, HOBOKEN.

The Home occupies a building of its own on Bloomfield street, between Eighth and Ninth streets. It has an endowment of about $18,000. There are seven inmates. Many more would like to enter, but are unable to on account of lack of means and lack of room. By resolution of the Board of Trustees, no person can be admitted as an inmate unless payment is made of a sum not less than ten dollars a month, excepting where other arrangements are made for good and sufficient cause. Contributions for the support of the Home and for the increase of the Endowment Fund will gladly be received.

HOUSE OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD, ORANGE.

This Home has had thirty admissions in the course of the past year, thirteen of which were convalescents from the hospitals and cared for without charge, some for a shorter and some for a longer period, and sixteen permanent inmates, being aged and infirm, mostly women. There are but two men.

The Treasurer's report shows the year's expenses to have been $3,000, and to have been met by the board of inmates, supplemented by voluntary contributions. There have been two deaths in the Home.

It is still under the care of only the churches in the Oranges, all the Parishes being represented on its Board of Managers. It has a permanent and invested fund to the extent of $5,600, the interest of which is used towards paying the current expenses. The chaplain reports a monthly communion, a Sunday afternoon service, besides a service on Wednesday mornings, and on the great festivals of the year.
